MOTT WINS POINT IN CASE

Judge Ogden Expresses Opinion Mayor's Name Should Be on Ticket

Much Interest Being Manifested in Trial of Wuerth vs. Thompson

Shortly before noon today Judge F. B. Ogden sitting in department six of the Superior Court brought out an important point in the suit of Attorney Harry C. Wuerth against City Clerk Frank R. Thompson for an injunction to prohibit him from placing the name of Frank K. Mott upon the ballot for the election on May 9. It was the result of arguments of attorneys for both sides after the matter had been given some consideration. Whether or not the action of city employees in serving as validation deputies should affect the status of Mott in the primary election was the question raised by Judge Ogden and a point that Attorney W. Lair Hill representing Wuerth sought to press upon the court.

The opinion of the court was to the effect that the action of the deputies, R. B. Fulton, H. A. Wilkinson, J. S. Riven, James Nelson and Henry Vogt should not invalidate the place of Mott on the ballot. That if under the charter they had been guilty of illegal proceedings, they should be held accountable in some other manner, but that the candidate should not suffer, nor the votes of more than 5000 people be invalidated.

The filing of an amended complaint by the plaintiffs shortly before court convened this morning occupied considerable time on the part of both sides in determining as to whether it was covered by all the points in the demurrer filed yesterday.

Assistant City Attorney Charles A. Beardsley presented the case for the defendant. With him were associated City Attorney Ben F. Woolner, M. C. Chapman and Eugene Trefethen. Attorney Woolner pointed out that as under the election law it would be necessary to mail the sample ballots tomorrow and that some decision should be reached in the matter today. He stated that they had appeared in court to answer to the original complaint, and he asked that it be stipulated that a demurrer might be filed to cover any new points raised during the hearing if the case proceeded.

Robe of Feathers to Be Worn by Princess

Former Miss Campbell Arrives in New York On Way to the Coronation.

NEW YORK, April 28.—Princess Kawannakoa of Hawaii, who before her marriage was Miss Abigail Campbell, daughter of a wealthy American sugar trader, is in New York on her way to attend the coronation in London.

One of the robes which the princess will wear at the coronation is a cape of birds' feathers, one of the most costly garments in the world. It is made from the feathers of a species of island bird now extinct. Each bird had only one of the variety of feathers used in making the cape.

Sun Eclipse Today at 3 P. M. Moon's Shadow Crosses Ocean

Owing to the fact that there are so few islands in the Pacific along the path of the sun's total eclipse today and that the chances of clear weather were so poor, the Lick Observatory did not send an expedition to observe the phenomenon.

The total eclipse begins today in Australia and will be visible in Oakland and other favored sections of the southwestern portion of the United States as a partial eclipse.

Throughout California only about three-tenths of the sun's diameter will be obscured. It will begin about 3 o'clock in the afternoon and will last until about 4:30.

The center of the moon's shadow will pass from Australia diagonally northward across the Pacific ocean almost to Mexico. The last eclipse observed in this state was in 1900.

TWO HURT IN AUTO CRASH

James Sexton Probably Fatally Injured When Machine Overturns

Accident on County Road Said to Have Been Due to Fast Driving

PLEASANTON, April 28.—James Sexton, an automobile agent, was probably fatally hurt and Thomas Carrither badly out late yesterday when an auto in which they were riding turned turtle on the road between Pleasanton and Santa Rita.

While whirling along the county thoroughfare at a rate said to have been near sixty miles an hour, the automobile, driven by Sexton, who lives in San Francisco, struck a rise in the road near the old bridge, flew into the air and landed on the side of the creek bank bottom up.

Sexton was carried along with the car, pinned to his seat by the steering wheel, and narrowly escaped death. He was pulled from beneath the pile of wreckage unconscious and bleeding from many wounds and abrasions on the head and face. It is doubtful whether he will live, his body being badly crushed.

JUMPS TO SAFETY.

Carrither, who was with Sexton, managed to escape serious injury by throwing himself from his seat. Although bleeding from many cuts from broken glass, he worked by himself for nearly an hour before he could pull his unconscious companion from beneath the machine.

According to the story told by Carrither this morning, he and Sexton had left Oakland early in the afternoon on their way to Stockton where they were to deliver the car to a local automobile agency.

They neared the town of Santa Rita about 5 o'clock and fearing that they would be overtaken by darkness before they could make Pleasanton, Sexton threw in the high speed gear. The speedometer began to climb until it had reached the fifty-five mark.

About this time they came upon the rise in the road and before the brakes were thrown on the machine was lying on the bank of the creek.

Carrither thought his friend dead or dying and worked with feverish haste with the blood streaming down his face. Finally with an effort he broke a rail from a fence and using it as a lever succeeded in raising the car enough to permit him to drag out the body of Sexton.

Both men were later taken to a roadhouse of Charles Powell in Santa Rita where they were attended by Dr. Wells. Sexton is still unconscious and it is feared that he is suffering from internal injuries. The machine is a total wreck.

TARRYTOWN, N. Y., April 28.—More than 300 men, women and children jumped from their seats at a moving picture show here late last night when a film caught fire.

"I'll shoot the first man that tries to rush," shouted Policeman Thomas Welch, who stationed himself near the exits as the crowd started its rush and the men began to push ahead of the women. His threatening manner and words had an instantaneous effect on the unruly crowd, and without further signs of panic, the spectators moved quietly out.

The fire department put the blaze out with little damage.

CANTON IN HANDS OF RIOTERS

Palace Burned by Revolutionists, Many of Whom Are Killed by Troops.

Rebels Armed With Bomb and Rifle; Residents Are Fleeing the City

HONG KONG, April 28.—Only official messages are being received today from Canton, where a revolutionary outbreak occurred last night. These are of a disquieting character. The revolutionists have obtained a quantity of explosives and the government has expected the steamship companies plying to that city to suspend their service lest arms be smuggled in to the disturbers, who are still at large. Many have been imprisoned.

The fighting between the troops and the rioters last night began when the soldiers arrested a revolutionary leader and his followers, who, carrying revolvers and wearing badges, boldly proclaimed their purpose and surrounded the Viceroy's palace. After setting it afire, they interfered with the efforts of others to extinguish the flames.

The revolutionists were armed with rifles and bombs and fought desperately. Several hundred are reported killed and wounded. The troops were commanded by Admiral Li and they suffered considerably, a colonel being among those wounded.

J. B. NAMARA ALIAS J. B. BRYCE

The soldiers finally got control of the situation and energetic measures to prevent another outbreak were taken. The gates of the city were closed and a search made in suspected quarters for arms and ammunition. The fire in the palace burned for two hours, doing great damage. The Viceroy escaped harm.

RESIDERS FLEE CITY.

A strict censorship has been established and only official exchanges between Hong Kong and Canton are possible.

Thousands of residents of Canton are fleeing to this city. Those who have arrived say anarchy is rife among the soldiers at Canton. Many of the troops completed their service today and these men are particularly feared.

Anarchists have been furthering their propaganda in the army, where there was already much discontent, owing to the recent suppression of gambling. The British consul at Canton has reported to the governor of Hong Kong that the situation is serious.

Aeroplane to Conquer the Polar Regions, Says Peary

NEW YORK, April 28.—Rear Admiral Robert E. Peary thinks that the important work of polar exploration in the future will be done by means of the aeroplane. Speaking at the annual dinner of the Aeronautics Society last night, Rear Admiral Peary said:

CLUTCHES LIVE WIRE; LIFE IS SAVED

Errand Boy Hurlled to the Floor by Current of 500 Volts

With a blinding flash, followed by a shower of sparks, all the lights and the elevator service in the Bacon building on Washington street, between Eleventh and Twelfth, were put out of commission at 3:30 o'clock this morning and Frank Williams, a 16-year-old errand boy, miraculously escaped death when he accidentally clutched a live electric wire carrying 500 volts.

He was thrown to the floor, the force breaking his hold on the wire, which fact undoubtedly saved his life. He was taken to the Receiving hospital, where the burns on his hand and wrist were dressed by Steward Platt, after which he went to his home at 1708 Webster street.

The accident occurred in the bottom of the elevator shaft in the basement of the building. The short circuit caused by the contact caused the majority of the fuses in the building to be blown out, while in their immediate vicinity bystanders and employees were thrown into a small panic.

Bride of Week Is Stabbed by Spouse

Scolds When He Comes Home Late and Is Cut and Beaten for Remonstrance.

NEW YORK, April 28.—Mrs. Winifred Callan, a bride of less than a week, is dying in the Flower hospital from wounds which the police say were inflicted by her husband in a quarrel, early today. The husband is under arrest, pending the result of her injuries.

According to the police, the young husband stayed out until midnight last night celebrating his recent marriage with friends, and was upbraided by his wife on his return home. Callan thereupon picked up a heavy club, it is charged, and bent her into unconsciousness, completing his assault by stabbing her repeatedly with a huge knife.

A. D. BURROWS SAYS PRISONER RESEMBLES BRYCE

Oakland Man Expects to Be Called to Los Angeles as Witness in the Dynamiting Case

Union Labor Lawyer Talks With McManigal, Who Declines Legal Assistance

A. D. Burrows, part owner of the launch Pastime, which was rented by the alleged dynamiters last September, admitted today at his residence, 1314 Linden street, that the photographs of James B. McNamara, which have appeared in the newspapers, bear a general likeness to one of the men who rented the launch from him and gave the name of J. B. Bryce. Burrows said that he did not like to make any definite statement, as he expected to be called to Los Angeles by the police to identify McNamara as one of the men with whom he had business dealings in Oakland. He added that the description of McNamara's build fits that of Bryce in many ways.

"If I saw either of the men who hired the Pastime from me again I would know him in a minute," said Burrows. "The man who accompanied McNamara, or Bryce, when the pair took possession of the launch at the foot of Webster street would be easily identified from the fact that he was cross-eyed." Burrows has received no summons from the Los Angeles police, but expects to at any hour.

When the launch Pastime was returned to its owners at the foot of Webster street on September 26 last, by Bryce and his companion, who gave the name of Perry, it was found that its name had been changed to Peerless. It was this which in part threw suspicion on the actions of the pair.

Cleveland Labor Leaders Say They Do Not Know Ortie McManigal

CLEVELAND, April 28.—Labor leaders here say they know nothing of the presence here of Ortie E. McManigal, who is said to have confessed at Los Angeles to the dynamiting of the iron ore conveyor at North Randal on March 25. Charles Smith, business agent of the Structural Iron Workers' Union, said today he had never seen McManigal. The latter's name could not be found on any of a dozen hotel registers of that date.

Clerk of Giant Powder Company Goes to Los Angeles

LOS ANGELES, April 28.—John H. Baker, a clerk in the employ of the Giant Powder Company at Giant, Cal., where the explosives which destroyed the plant of the Los Angeles Times was purchased, is in Los Angeles to aid in the identification of James B. McNamara as "J. B. Bryce," one of the men who effected the deal for the dynamite.

Baker has paid a call upon District Attorney Fredericks, who was too busy at the time with others matters to confer with him. It was announced that the conference would be held later. Baker is said to be the clerk who sold the dynamite to the conspirators, the latter representing themselves as mining men and ranchers.

Job Harriman, a union labor lawyer and one of the attorneys for the McNamaras, tried to see McManigal early today, but was refused admittance to the jail by District Attorney Fredericks. Later the Sheriff permitted Harriman to interview McManigal. The prisoner declined legal aid.

HARRIMAN AT INTERVIEW.

Harriman said that he was present yesterday when O. N. Hilton, another attorney for the defense, obtained what they asserted was McManigal's statement to the effect that he had not and would not confess. Because of that, Harriman is loath to believe that the man did so immediately after saying he would not. He planned the visit to the jail in order to determine the truth about the asserted confession and also to learn if McManigal was correctly quoted by the District Attorney who said the accused man did not want an attorney.

He said that if McManigal really does not want an attorney that

California Men Implicated in Plot by "Confessor"

LOS ANGELES, April 28. — Although District Attorney Fredericks has said no part of the supposed confession of Orlie McManigal was made public, a local paper publishes what purports to be a part of this confession. It quotes McManigal as follows:

"James B. McNamara came out to California and after conferences with several California men it was arranged for Schmidt and Bryce to take part. They purchased the dynamite at Giant, Cal., and then Bryce came on Los Angeles. I am not sure whether or not Caplan and Schmidt accompanied him here or not.

"McNamara, or Bryce, told me how he had planted the dynamite in the Times building. He said he went there early in the evening with a suit case containing forty sticks of gelatine. This he placed in a walled blind alley in such a manner that the force would be entirely conserved.

"A gas jet was broken by McNamara in leaving the building, which would he and his associates will confine themselves entirely to the legal assistance of the McNamara brothers.

Harriman also said today that when he talked yesterday with McManigal, the man made references to others. What those references were Harriman declined to state, except that the others were not the McNamara brothers.

McNAMARA HAS HIS JEST.

An incident showing that James B. McNamara is not always so sullen as he has been represented as being was related today by Detective Philip J. Barry, who came west with the prisoners. When the men were removed from the train at Pasadena and carried with great speed from that city to the county jail in Los Angeles in an automobile, McNamara, noting the excessive rate at which they were traveling, exclaimed: "Better look out; you'll be pinched for speeding."

Case Resembles Closely the Moyer-Hayward Affair

LOS ANGELES, April 28.—As the curtain arose on the third day of the situation surrounding the imprisonment and impending trial of the alleged dynamite makers and murderers—John J. McNamara, James B. McNamara, and Orlie E. McManigal—many of the mysterious uncertainties had disappeared and the true outlines of the great criminal case began to assume more definite form, so that both principals and public were able to get for the first time a fair view of what is before them and what is to come.

The all-prominent and overshadowing feature is the confession which McManigal is purported to have made, first to Detective William J. Burns in Chicago and to have reiterated in even fuller form to District Attorney Fredericks here yesterday.

NO IMMUNITY PROMISED.

Assertions are prolific on one side that the confession has been made and that it is secure in the hands of the officers of the State of California to be brought out when needed for the conviction of the McNamara brothers and even the author of the document himself—for it is asserted no promise of immunity has been given. Even what is claimed to be extracts from this document have been published, giving purportedly verbatim quotations from the confession of the alleged tool of the "dynamite ring."

It can be set down as certain, however, that all official reports, none of these quotations are actual, or even partially resembling, any original confession there may be.

As to the authorization of the reported confession, there is absolutely none. District Attorney Fredericks has refused to admit directly that he has a confession from one of the men in his custody, and he will not say that he has. Both he and the other officials have refused and still refuse steadfastly to make any disclosures in this direction, notwithstanding the many published statements to the contrary.

WILL PRODUCE CONFESSION.

It is the almost universal belief, which amounts to positive conviction, that when the proper time arrives the state will come forward with a claimed confession from the principals in the case, setting forth in full detail all that has been charged.

The case continues to assume, as consecutive developments occur, more and more the character of the famous case of Moyer, Hayward and Pettibone at Boise City. Even the "Harry Orchard" feature promises to be repeated almost in duplicate. The remarkable resemblance of the two cases is the subject of continual comment here.

Except for the substitution of John J. McNamara, secretary of the International Association of Bridge and Structural Iron Workers, for William D. Hayward, secretary of the Western Federation of Miners, and of the local scenes of Los Angeles for those of Boise, the cases might appear almost identical to the spectator.

If Clarence Darrow comes to Los Angeles as chief counsel for the accused dynamite men—the same capacity in which he appeared at Boise—as it is claimed here he will, the resemblance of the two situations will be heightened. District Attorney Fredericks will personally conduct the prosecution, though he may be assisted in the trial by volunteer counsel.

The identification of James B. McNamara as the much wanted J. B. Bryce—thrusting him into the case of the dynamite in San Francisco and placing the clockwork bomb in the blind alley running into the Times building, is another development of the case which brings it into more definite and final outline. This identification made by Mrs. D. H. Ingersoll, the San Francisco rooming-house keeper, is asserted to be absolutely positive on the authority of District Attorney Fredericks.

No official court act in the cases has been taken and probably will not until the expected arrival here of Clarence Darrow.

District Attorney Fredericks today declared himself as possessed of sufficient evidence to proceed to trial at any time, but does not wish to hurry the defense. What Fredericks holds against the men is expected to be materially strengthened by the arrival of W. Joseph Ford, his assistant, from Indianapolis, who is said to be bringing with him a copy of the confession alleged to have been made in the East, and other material evidence.

GUNS SPIKED, SAYS HILTON.

O. N. Hilton of Denver, one of the attorneys engaged for the defense of the McNamara brothers, yesterday he has "spiked the gun" of the prosecution by obtaining yesterday a statement from McManigal in the presence of witnesses that he had not confessed anything and would not do so.

Union men have decided not to make an official statement of their views of the case or of the actions the unions will take if any. They have made a statement by John Harriman, their spokesman in the matter and have abolished a former publicity committee.

District Attorney Fredericks continued today to keep his own counsel, but what McManigal told him at their meeting yesterday. When asked if he would make public what McManigal told him before the actual trial of the case, he answered: "I would be foolish, would I not, to give my evidence away to the defense?"

It is believed that the arraignment of the men will occur sometime next week and probably in the court of Judge Walter Bordwell, presiding judge of the Los Angeles courts, in whose department the scene of the rioting at Canton brought 100 refugees, mostly women, today. These witnesses say that more than 300 casualties were reported among the queueless, as the revolutionaries have been named.

ASSASSINATE TARTAR.

SEATTLE, Wash., April 28.—Tokio papers just received contain dispatches describing the outbreak of the rebellion at Canton on April 7.

Vice-Governor Fu Chi, a Tartar, was assassinated that day in front of the local government office by a revolutionist. The guards and palanquin bearers of the governor made no effort to arrest the assassin, who fled, but was captured later. He declared that his object was to expel the Manchus.

The viceroy of Canton ordered that all the gates of the city be closed, and endeavored in vain to quiet the people, among whom anti-dynastic sentiment is rife.

HOSTILE TO LOANS.

PEKING, April 28.—Hostilities toward foreign loans is assuming a serious phase. Members of both the national and the provincial assemblies are holding sessions here and elsewhere demanding the immediate summoning of the national body and insisting that the government no longer has the right to contract loans in other countries without the approval of the representatives of the people.

I talked to you yesterday," said Harriman to McManigal, "you said you did not wish to talk at length until you knew positively what interest we had in the case. We told you that we would return with credentials establishing our position in the matter. I am here now in accordance with that promise. Do you wish to speak to me as an attorney for the defense?"

"No, sir," said McManigal, according to Harriman.

"Would you like to speak to Hilton, upon his return here?" asked the attorney.

"No, sir," was McManigal's answer.

"Or to Clarence Darrow, when he comes, or to any other attorney employed by the general defense?"

"No, sir," responded McManigal, "I will let matters take their course."

Then Sheriff Hammel, in whose presence the conversation took place, led McManigal back to his cell and Harriman left the jail.

"We shall devote ourselves entirely to the defense of the McNamaras," said Harriman.

Charges Against McNamara Condemned by Trades' Council

SAN FRANCISCO, April 28.—The Building Trades Council last night adopted resolutions condemning the charges against John J. McNamara as a plot of the employers to assassinate union labor and protesting against the alleged Russian methods of the detective in kidnapping and railroad kidnapping McNamara from his home at Indianapolis. The council pledged itself to raise a fund of $100,000 for the defense of the legal rights of McNamara and his accused associates. Following are the resolutions:

"Whereas, J. J. McNamara, secretary-treasurer of the International Association of Bridge and Structural Iron Workers, was kidnapped and railroad kidnapped from his home in Indianapolis last Saturday and taken to Los Angeles, where he is now confined in the county jail on a charge of murder; and SAN LEANDRO, April 28.—Nearly 200 children of the St. Leanders Church will receive confirmation from Bishop O'Connell of San Francisco at 10:30 mass, Sunday morning. This is the largest number of children that have ever been confirmed at the local church, and three days' retreat preparations to that are being conducted by Father Culligan of San Jose.

Drills are being practiced under the guidance of the Sisters of St. Mary's Convent. A number of noted San Francisco clergymen, including Father Cummings, will be present at the confirmation. Bishop O'Connell will preach the sermon. The two hundred boys and girls will sing a number of hymns.

BOYS ARE BLAMED FOR POCKET-PICKING

SAN FRANCISCO, April 28.—A crowd of young boys scarcely out of their teens are held responsible for picking the pocket of James C. Sullivan, a resident of Lakespur, who lost his purse containing $30 on a Sutter street car last night. The lads were fouling on the platform, jostling each other, occasionally bumping against Sullivan, who good naturedly made no objection. He believes that one of them got his pocketbook.

NEW FREIGHT LINE TO BUILD OWN STEAMER

Oaklanders to Be Considered in Bidding on Draymen's Boat.

FOUR-MASTER GOES ON THE DRYDOCK

Many Vessels Tie Up at Local Wharves During the Day.

The Draymen's freight line has chartered the stern-wheeler Grace Barton for one year, to ply between this city and San Francisco in place of the Rio Rey, the first vessel used by the new line when it was established about a month ago. In addition, Captain R. W. Hammer, manager of the concern, announced this morning that the company will build a steamer to be completed when the charter on the Grace Barton expires. In about two weeks the company, which is established at the city wharf at the foot of Franklin street, will submit specifications for bids. Oakland shipbuilders will be specially considered in the awarding of the contract. The proposed freighter will be of about 300 tons register with a freight capacity of 350 tons. It will be fitted up with twin screws and run by gasoline.

The company is now making extensive changes in its office and freight shed at the foot of Franklin street. The office is being practically rebuilt, the present quarters being too cramped. The Grace Barton is now being overhauled and will go into commission May 1 in command of Captain P. Hansen. The vessel has been on the mud flats in the upper estuary for some time past.

VESSLS ON DRYDOCK.

The four-masted ship Reuce is at the United Engineering Works undergoing extensive repairs being done by the D. J. Hanlon Company, which has 100 men working on it. The steamer Klamath is also at these yards to be painted, corked and fitted up with a new propeller. While removing the wheel yesterday afternoon the machinery in use gave way and the heavy propeller fell through the flooring of the drydock. No one was injured.

The steamer Washington, recently bought by the Olsen Mahoney concern, of San Francisco, is now at the United Engineering yards being overhauled and repaired. The Pacific Mail freight and passenger steamer Acapulco is also there for inspection and a coat of paint. The vessel is on the Panama run and is commanded by Captain G. G. Trask. It is scheduled to sail from San Francisco May 4.

BRINGS LUMBER.

The steam schooner Coaster, Captain Higgins, was in Oakland harbor yesterday with lumber from the Columbia river. The art of the cargo was for the Panama Lumber and Mill Company. The rest was left at Long wharf and San Francisco. Fair weather was reported on the downward trip. The steamer Szean, Captain Allen, left 300 bundles of laths and 20,000 feet of flooring at Adams wharf yesterday for the Western Lumber Company. It came from Grays harbor.

These vessels tied up at Long wharf yesterday. Steamer Brooklyn, from Everett, with 60,000 feet of lumber; steamer Hanaia, Captain Hansen, from Seattle, with 35 cars of telegraph poles; steamer San Pedro, Captain Benedixen, from Casuar, with 19,000 feet of lumber; the Ravalli, Captain Nelson, loaded cement and machinery for Eureka; a San Francisco Bridge Company barge took on cement for Fort Mason; steamer Del Norte, Captain Sanford, left 45,000 feet of lumber and 15,000 posts from Crescent City.

CUPID IS DRIVEN OFF THE CAMPUS

Kansas University Co-eds Bar Spooning on Week Days.

LAWRENCE, Kas., April 28.—Gone are the days when the women students of Kansas University may on week days go strolling in the bright moonlight, sit on the front porches of the rooming houses or chat with men students in the ice cream parlors near the college grounds.

Members of the Women's Student Government Association and several sororities are responsible for a new rule prohibiting such pastimes. It is believed that many women students have been neglecting their work in order that they might entertain friends.

The rule does not entirely prohibit men and women from associating with one another. They are permitted to stroll together from the library to the rooming houses, if they choose, but they must not stop to rest at any of the soft drink emporiums or drug stores on the way. Since the new rule went into effect there has been an unusually large demand for library book.

OSGOODS' DYSPEPSIA REMEDY IS BEST YET, MILD, BUT SURE, CURE

Beats Ancient Methods of Relieving a Weakened and Overloaded Stomach With the Advantage of Being Both a Healing Compound and a Tonic.

Dieting is no longer recommended as the proper method of treating disorders of the stomach. Starvation is now rightly considered to be simply a highway to the cemetery rather than a short cut to good health, and modern science has proven that the food cravings of the appetite in illness are a demand of nature for the substances which will build up worn-out nerve or muscle tissue, rather than an unnatural longing for foods which would aggravate the trouble. Although in everything one should use moderation, there are more people suffering from dyspepsia from over-eating or from substituting for months on the same diet than from eating too great a variety of foods.

In ancient times banquets were served, after each course, with a concoction which quickly relieved the stomachs of the revellers of the food just eaten, and even in modern times physicians occasionally have recourse to the stomach pump with which to relieve a patient who has died, "not wisely, but too well." But an easier way of assisting in the digestion and assimilation of foods has been discovered in Osgood's Dyspepsia Remedy, the new stomach medicine which has become famous as a positive cure for dyspepsia and other diseases of the digestive organs.

Mr. Osgood has received hundreds of letters from people who have been relieved of the most acute cases of stomach trouble, and each believes that in their particular case a permanent cure has been effected. At any rate they consider good health cheap at a dollar a bottle, the purchase price of the medicine. Osgood's Dyspepsia Cure may be bought at the Osgood store at Seventh and Broadway or the other store at Twelfth and Washington.

MAYOR MOTT WINS POINT IN TRIAL

Probable Ruling of Court in the Ballot Case Will Be in His Favor.

ceded. It was therefore stipulated that the dispute should apply to the original and amended complaint. Beardsley contended that the paragraph stating that Booth and Jackson received the highest number of legal votes in the election should be struck out for the reason that it was a conclusion of a point in law that had not been decided. That the proceedings sought to enjoin a particular candidate and were illegal, he further contended. That the whole tenor of the complaint was somewhat indefinite as to just what it sought to accomplish. As the bulk of allegations in the amended complaint had to do with the verification deputies he desired to know upon what the plaintiff based his claim to court standing. He pointed out that Wuertth was not a candidate in the recent election and that the city charter provided explicitly the manner in which an election could be contested through the invalidation of votes received by a candidate, but that the action against the verification deputies was a matter.

It seems a strange thing that a court of equity should disenfranchise more than 9000 people because of an irregularity in the election proceeding, he said, "and the charter provides that no informality shall invalidate the election if it has been carried on in substance and in purport of the charter."

NO ILLEGALITY.

"There may have been informality but not illegality and this is a case where the door has been closed and there is no excuse for punishing good voters at this late hour. The case should have been taken some time ago, before the primary election. Further there is nothing to show that these 9000 voters would not have voted in the name of Frank E. Mott on their ballots under the provision of the primary law."

Seemingly beaten on that point Attorney Hill confined his attention to the paragraphs of the complaint that dealt with the action of the verification deputies. He said: "The policy and purpose of the new charter was to do away with what is known as machine politics by preventing any city employee from taking part in any election or campaign. It was intended to eliminate corruption in the affairs of conducting the city government."

CASE NARROWS DOWN.

By the time court adjourned it was evident that the question had narrowed down to the conduct of the verification deputies and as to whether their alleged actions should affect the status of Mayor Mott instead of making themselves liable under the new charter. That the injunction would be denied and that Mott's name would go on the ballot was apparently clearly manifest before the proceedings had been heard to any great extent.

The status of the verification deputies occupied the attention of Attorney Hill when court convened this afternoon. He declared that R. E. Pelton, ward deputy clerk "de facto" and that he had no power to appoint the four other verification deputies, thereby invalidating the work that had been done by them and consequently the primary election so far as its results affected the status of Mayor Frank E. Mott.

At 3 o'clock he was still arguing the case before the court.

GALLOWAY RESIGNS HIS BERKELEY POSITION

Water Expert Considers That Recent Election Has Abrogated His Usefulness.

PRESENTS REASONS IN NOTE TO COUNCIL

Contemplates Similar Action in Regard to His Job in Oakland.

BERKELEY, April 23.—J. D. Galloway, who with J. H. Dockweiler, was appointed to represent the cities of Oakland, Berkeley and Alameda in the board of engineers of San Francisco in preparing a report on available water supply for the bay cities, today presented his resignation to the Berkeley city council and announced that he would present a similar resignation to the city of Oakland. In explaining his action Galloway said:

"Although the order of Secretary Ballinger is limited, there is no doubt but that the public expects a complete investigation into all the suggested sources of water supplies in order that a definite settlement of this question be had. The report should be comprehensive and should settle for all time this much discussed question. As my opinion is impossible under existing conditions to prepare such a report, I insist I do not care to assist in preparing a partial or insufficient report. I desire to resign from the commission of engineers."

SECONDARY REASON.

"The above is the principal reason for my resignation. A secondary one, which has some bearing upon the subject, is this—the question of a municipal water supply for Berkeley has been one of the principal considerations of your administration, your own interest in the matter is well known and it is largely owing to your efforts that co-operation with the transbay cities, Oakland, Berkeley and Alameda, was secured. As I see the question, the only possible solution is co-operation with San Francisco in a mountain supply from the Hetch-Hetchy valley. At the recent election the people of Berkeley by a small majority have elected another mayor. I take it that this means disapproval of this project upon which your administration was working. This being the case I am willing to accept the verdict and to discontinue any further connection with the subject."

Galloway's letter of resignation was addressed to Mayor Hodghead. It was filed by the council without action. Galloway was recently scored by Mayor-elect J. Stitt Wilson for certain published comments upon the character of voters who elected the new mayor.

City Attorney Frank D. Stringham, who has been ill in a San Francisco hospital for several weeks, presented his resignation to the council today and his assistant, E. D. M. Greene, was appointed in his stead, his duties to begin May 1.

Ford was rushed to the receiving hospital, where his wounds were dressed, and his wife was taken to the city jail where she is being held awaiting the outcome of Ford's wounds.

Ford said that the quarrel was brought on by his request that his wife quit taking music lessons from an instructor whom he objected. Mrs. Ford told a story of frequent quarrels and alleged abuse by her husband. Ford is 51 years of age and his wife 35.

LODGES WANT REPRESENTATIVE

James J. McElroy Is Candidate for Grand Trustee of Native Sons.

James J. McElroy, real estate man of 980 Seventh street, is Alameda county's candidate for grand trustee of the Native Sons of the Golden West.

He is being backed by the Alameda county lodgemen who feel that this district, which is the second largest in the state, exceeded only by San Francisco, should have a representative on this important body. Last night the Pioneer Halcyon parlor held a meeting, at which plans were made for campaigning trips.

ANITA TURNBULL TO REOPEN CASE

Attorneys for the Girl File an Appeal Alleging the Court Erred.

LOS ANGELES, April 23.—Attorneys for Miss Beatrice Anita Turnbull in her contest for a daughter's share of the $11,000,000 estate of the late Elias J. (Lucky) Baldwin, have filed an appeal from the decision of Judge Rives of the superior court of this county excluding her from such share.

Grounds for the appeal, as outlined by her attorneys, are that Judge Rives erred in taking the case out of the hands of the jury and instructing them to return a verdict against the plaintiff, and also in allowing testimony regarding the relations of Mrs. Lillian A. Turnbull, the contestant's mother, to Colonel Pope, a Boston millionaire manufacturer.

NOY RECEPTION LARGELY ATTENDED

The Tax Rate, Bond Issue and License Discussed by Speakers.

ALAMEDA, April 23.—Tax rate, proposed bond issue, municipal hot salt water baths and swimming tank, parks and playgrounds and the further development of the municipal electric light plant were some of the chief topics of discussion at the reception tendered by the Alameda Improvement Club last night at Mayor W. H. Noy and the members of the city council.

Among the speakers were Club President Mackie, Mayor Noy, Council President E. B. Bullock, Councilman William Hammond, Jr., E. J. Probst, R. E. Krumb and Alvin J. Morgenstern, R. Smith, City Physician L. W. Stidham, Library Trustee E. W. Maslin, President J. E. Wilkins of the Chamber of Commerce, C. A. Borie of the North Side Club, John Elder of the East End Club, George W. L. Plummer, the Rev. Henry S. Frank, Joseph Vieira and Baron Barotau.

The guests of honor were seated at a head table on either side of President Mackie, with the rest of the company seated at long tables at right angles from the head banquet board. The club-room walls were decorated with flags and garlands while the tables were brightened with flowers.

MAYOR NOY SPEAKS.

Mayor Noy made his first official announcement that he was opposed to the proposed bond issue. He said that he believed that the business license should be repealed. He made a strong plea for the repeal of the license, patronized by residents of this city and said that he met a man carrying home a wheelbarrow across the bay who owned a flat building in Alameda, who was trying to rent his property and earn an income in Alameda, at the same time going outside the city to purchase his supplies.

Council President Bullock gave some tax and bond talk. He said that the change in the assessment methods would reduce Alameda's assessment this year $1,000,000. In addition, the amendments adopted at the last State election, would cause a loss of $200 in license charges formerly paid by corporations.

RUNNING TO CAPACITY.

Taking up the proposition of a further bond issue the council president said that the electric light plant by fall would be running at its utmost capacity and would require $125,000 to make needed enlargements and other improvements. Then, said the speaker, the plant would be fully equipped for the next fifteen years. Further bond matters were touched upon in the way of $7500 for a municipal wharf, an emergency hospital and for park and playground purposes. The council president said that the park and playground fund was now at a low ebb. At one time, through a bond issue of $15,000 or $20,000 and that if this were done the annual appropriation for park improvements could be eliminated. Later in the evening Councilman E. J. Probst made a plea to have a new truck for the West End provided for in the bond budget and called attention to an instance this week where the heavy fire truck was hauled from Park street to St. Charles street for a morning alarm and a couple of hours later was hauled by the same team from Park street to Webster street for a second alarm. He declared that the humane society would prosecute a private horse owner for working his animals as severely as the city was frequently compelled to do to cover the territory with one truck.

HOME INDUSTRY, LEAGUE'S PLEA

To the Board of Public Works, Oakland: Gentlemen:—THE OAKLAND TRIBUNE of April 20 contains an editorial calling attention to the specifications for the new city hall in your city where in the architect has specified in practically every instance Eastern material. We desire to ask your honorable body if this cannot be changed, and wish to say that we have been very successful in San Francisco and other parts of the state in accomplishing this result. We think that it is not the intention of the architect to deliberately shut out the California manufacturer, but owing to the fact that in a great many instances he is an Eastern man, and being acquainted with Eastern brands, he naturally so specifies.

EQUAL IN STATE.

We desire to assure you that the majority of articles manufactured in California in every line as well as the building line, by actual test, have been proven to be the equal and in a great many instances the superior to those produced in the East.

As you have in your city concerns who are rated first class in the building lines, it seems to us that by giving mature deliberation to the matter, you will realize the vital importance of conserving your resources, not only for the benefit of Oakland, but for the entire state.

If the large amount of material that is necessary for the construction of so pretentious a building as the City Hall in Oakland was bought at home, the money would circulate through the regular channels and eventually refill the coffers of the city and state. If sent east, his money is lost to us and we immediately feel the effects of such a policy.

The tax payers who are going to pay for the erection of this City Hall in Oakland, by a large majority, are manufacturers and they at least have a right to whatever benefits may occur in the expenditure of so large a sum of money.

We are in no way interested in the building line, but are an organization of 700 of the largest manufacturers of the state, who, during our seven month existence have been successful in keeping some $11,000,000 in California that otherwise would have been expended in the East.

Knowing the public spirit and broad-mindedness of the Oakland and Alameda county citizens, we feel sure that this matter will be taken in the spirit it is meant and that you will give it the consideration from an economic standpoint that it is entitled to.

Hoping that you will take some favorable action in this matter, we beg to remain, Yours very truly, HOME INDUSTRY LEAGUE OF CALIFORNIA, J. M. PATRICK, Secretary.

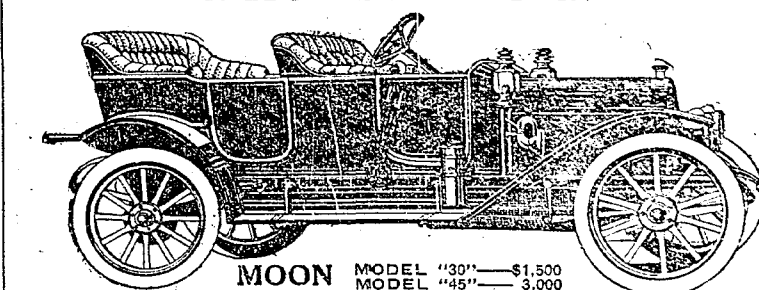

ROB HIM AND DRÖP HIM INTO VACANT LOT

SAN FRANCISCO, April 23.—Milani Toro, a resident of Modesto, arrived here last night and took a cab from the ferry. He was accompanied by two men, who escorted him to a hotel, the whereabouts of which he does not know. There, he claims, he was drugged, robbed of $150 and thrown into a vacant lot. He revived this morning and reported the affair to the police.

DECLARES MRS. GLOVER PLOTTED AGAINST SPOUSE

CAMBRIDGE, Mass., April 23.—An attempt by Mrs. Lillian M. Glover, widow of the murdered Waltham laundry owner, Clarence Glover, to induce her brother, Toby Le Blanc, to kill her husband, was one of the allegations made by Helen Glover in a deposition taken at St. John N. B., last week. The statement was read today as part of the deposition in the supreme court case where a jury is hearing the evidence in the contest of Clarence Glover's will.

GUILD HALL APPROVES PACT

Anglo-American Arbitration Is Favored by Prominent Englishmen
Premier Asquith Attributes to President Taft Credit for Movement

LONDON, April 23.—This venerable Guild Hall, without whose seal of approval no popular movement in London is really launched, witnessed today a meeting for the adoption of resolutions pledging the support of the Anglo-American complete arbitration.

The Lord Mayor of London, in his scarlet robes and with the mace in front of him, held the center of a temporary stage. On his right was the prime minister at his left former Premier Balfour, leader of the opposition in the House of Commons, while massed about the mayor were the archbishops of Canterbury and Westminster, Lord Lonsdale, the lord high chancellor, Lord Strathclyde, the high commissioner of Canada, Sir John G. Ward, premier of New Zealand, and other notables. Over their heads the Union Jack and Stars and Stripes were entwined.

TREATY MARKS NEW ERA.

Mr. Asquith and Mr. Balfour spoke eloquently of the treaty first proposed by President Taft, declaring that it would mark a new era in civilization, but both pointedly disclaimed that a peace pact between Great Britain and the United States, providing for the submission of all differences to arbitration would mean an alliance between the two countries. Mr. Balfour warned his hearers, that whom he said, none in the world felt more the burden of preparing for war, that the treaty would not mean the immediate reduction of armaments.

The meeting represented the democracy of England rather than the aristocracy. Among those on the platform were the Bishop of Exeter, the Earl of Aberdeen, Lord Lieutenant of Ireland, Sir George H. Reed, high commissioner of Australia, agents of all the other British colonies, along with representatives of the banks, the railway and the steamship companies of England.

Premier Asquith said in part:

NOT DIPLOMACY'S CHILD.

"The unique situation which we have met to recognize and welcome has not been organized or engineered by the apparatus of diplomacy. The seed which the President of the United States cast fell on ground prepared to receive it. That which a few years ago, even a few months ago, might have been regarded as the dream of idealists has not only become a reality, but a practical statesmanship, but has become the settled purpose of two great democracies.

"The profound significance of the new departure is that between Great Britain and the United States, whatever the intensity of the issue and the magnitude of the interests involved, whatever the poignancy of the feelings it aroused, there will be a feeling for the abandonment of war as a possible solution and the substitution of argument for force for the suppression by judicial methods of the old ordeal of battle."

IMPLIES NO MENACE.

After declaring that this implied no menace to the rest of mankind and did not provide for an Anglo-American alliance, aggressive or defensive, the premier continued:

"But we may hope and believe that other things will follow. It is not for us to dictate or to preach to other nations, but if the United States and Great Britain renounce war as a method of settling disputes, it will be a step of immeasurable and incomparable significance in onward progress of humanity."

MOTION INTRODUCED.

Mr. Asquith then moved the following resolution: "That this meeting of citizens of London, assembled in the Guild Hall, cordially welcomes the proposal of the United States in favor of a general treaty of arbitration between that country and the British empire, and pledges its support to the principles of such a treaty as serving the highest interests of the two nations and endeavoring to promote the peace of the world."

There was tremendous applause, which continued until Mr. Balfour arose to second the resolution.

The opposition leader said that Anglo-American arbitration seemed a new departure at this moment than ever before. Some, he said, regarded it as an idealistic dream and believed that when the clash of conflicting interests came all paper barriers would be swept away, and he continued:

THANKS TRIBUNE FOR ACCOUNT OF ADDRESS

EDITOR TRIBUNE: I have noted the excellent account of the lecture by Mr. Gross published in THE TRIBUNE last Tuesday, and on behalf of the Christian Science I wish to express appreciation of the way in which your paper has reported this address.

Newspaper men have sometimes been asked why they made such frequent mention of events connected with the Christian Science movement, and the reply has been that this subject was one of interest to so many persons that it had a news value which should not be ignored.

WHY ARE VALUABLE.

"Some ask if public opinion is thus, why a treaty is necessary. I do not believe that these logical dilemmas represent what actually happens. I grant that paper formulas are useless in themselves, but they represent the settled convictions of the people they are valuable."

International agreement with no more power of enforcement had made war far more civilized than in the past, the speaker said, and asked why they could not make it impossible.

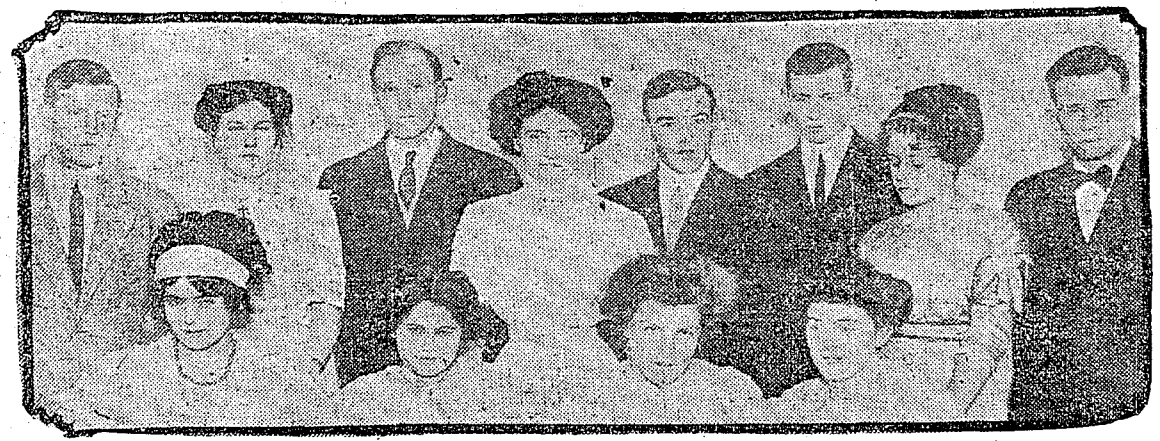

Mr. Balfour added that he was most optimistic regarding the prospects of the treaty, but warned his hearers that they should not mix up the question of morality with the method of avoiding it, with the question of reducing the burdens of armaments.

GREAT RESPONSIBILITY.

England would have a great responsibility in all parts of the world which treaty between English-speaking peoples could not lessen, but the determination of these communities in joining to set an example to the world at large would not only make for certain peace between them but would mark a significant step in the progress of civilization.

President Refuses Pardon To 4 Convicted Nebraskans

WASHINGTON, April 23.—President Taft today refused to pardon Bartlett Richards, William G. Comstock, Charles C. Jameson and Aquilla Triplett, wealthy Nebraska cattlemen, who had been convicted of conspiracy to defraud the government of grazing lands along the Wyoming border. The men are owners of the Nebraska Land and Feeding Company, with principal offices at Ellsworth, Neb. The evidence at the trial showed they had induced homesteaders fraudulently to claim thousands of acres of land which was turned over to the company for grazing. Richards and Comstock were sentenced to a year and Jameson and Triplett to six months.

Ranches Raided by Horse Thieves; Animals Sent Here

FRESNO, April 23.—Horse thieves have raided several ranches in the mountains between Coalinga and Los Gatos canyon, according to information received at the local sheriff's office today from Constable Arnold of Coalinga. In most cases the thieves have taken but one horse from each ranch. Yesterday a posse of Coalinga citizens scoured the country in search of the bandits, but failed to locate them. It is said that the thieves shipped the animals to accomplices in Oakland, who sell them at auction. Sheriff McSwain went to Coalinga today to investigate. He may deputize ranchers to assist him in the work.

LEAVES MANSION FOR A SHANTY TO BOOST LOCAL MANUFACTURES

Mrs. W. L. Brubeck Tires of Life With Spouse and Stepchildren.

Prefering a life in a shanty with chickens and a cow to a life of plenty in a handsome home with seven step-children and a husband 23 years her senior, Mrs. W. L. Brubeck, wife of a wealthy country land owner and San Francisco business man, has taken up her abode in a shack at Douglas street and Thirtieth avenue, Melrose.

And apparently this arrangement has proven an amicable one to the husband as well as the seven children, and it is stated that the capitalist is pondering the advisability of suing his young wife, who, by the way, is his third, for divorce. Four of the children are as old as the young wife, Miss Edna Brubeck, the oldest, being but four years the unhappy woman's junior.

"I had to do it," said Mrs. Brubeck, "I had either to ask Mr. Brubeck to send his children away or leave myself, and I chose the latter. There was no home large enough for his children and myself. I discussed the matter with my husband but he bought this little place for me, and told him he could secure a divorce if he wished to. I would not oppose it."

DORMITORY BURNS.

ANADARKO, OK., April 23.—Fire early today destroyed the three-story dormitory of the Riverside Government Indian school on the Washita river, north of this city.

Archbishop of Westminster, Chief Rabbi Adler of the United Hebrew Congregation of the British empire, and Rev. Frederick B. Meyer, minister of Regents Park chapel, spoke for the free churches, seconded the resolution.

Premier Ward of New Zealand, who spoke briefly for the colonies, received an enthusiastic reception.

Lord Averbury, Lord Rector of St. Andrews' university and Lord Rothschild, who were unable to be present, telegraphed their regrets.

GREAT BARRINGTON, Mass., April 23.—Forest fires continue to do widespread damage throughout this section. Two fires in the outskirts of Great Barrington have denuded more than 200 acres of choice woodland and scores of men are at work today in an effort to subdue the flames.

One of these fires was started by August Bergmann, an aged farmer, who had been at work cleaning the weeds and bushes from about his wife's grave in a suburban cemetery. He was burned to death on the grave by the blaze which he had started to dispose of the gathered brush.

CARLSTON PLANS TRIP TO EUROPE

With H. C. Taft the Central National Bank President Will Travel

J. F. Carlston, president of the Central National bank of this city, leaves May 5 on a trip to Europe, which will keep him on the continent for the next eight weeks. He will be accompanied in his journey by H. C. Taft of the well-known dry goods firm of Taft & Pennoyer. They will sail from New York May 18 on the steamer Berlin of the North German Lloyd, one of the finest of the floating marvels which ply between this country and the shores of Europe.

This is the first trip which Carlston has made abroad and has been designed solely with the view to rest and recreation. He declares he will pay no attention to business of any kind, regardless of what inducement might be offered to flatter the season of rest which he has planned for himself. There is no person who knows Mr. Carlston who does not enter into the hope that his journey may be attended with unalloyed pleasure, because they know that he richly deserves the respite he is taking by reason of his unremitting attention to business for the past few years, involving as it did the successful conduct of one of the strongest national banks on the Pacific coast.

Than H. C. Taft there is no more companionable gentleman with whom to travel abroad, because of his urbanity and equanimity, as also because of his acquaintance with every part of the continent, for the reason that for years there has not been a year that the gentleman has not spent some months traveling abroad either in search of pleasure or purchasing the novelties of foreign design or conceit which have been a feature among the attractions of the store of Taft & Pennoyer.

REPRESENTATION CLUB HAS RALLY

Strong Political Organization of Fruitvale Indorses Frederickson.

There was an enthusiastic meeting last night of the Representation Club of Fruitvale in Carpenters' Hall at the intersection of East Twelfth street and Fruitvale avenue, at which a number of speeches were delivered by assistant members, showing that the greatest interest obtains there in the present campaign. P. C. Frederickson was warmly indorsed for the position of commissioner No. 4, and promises were made to work for him to the polls.

Frederickson is making a specialty of holding meetings at the homes of his friends in various parts of the city, and it is understood that, in this manner, he is strengthening his chances for election. He has also established headquarters in rooms 21 and 22, in the Hotel Merritt, at the corner of Twelfth and Franklin streets, for the accommodation of his friends in the interior of the city. There may be found information regarding the campaign and there, from time to time, his friends will hold their deliberations for their purpose of advancing his political interests.

Educator Asks for Bequest From Alumnus

ROSEWELL, N. M., April 23.—Dr. David H. Galloway, a prominent physician of Rosewell, received a peculiar request today from Edmond James, president of the University of Illinois. Dr. Galloway's alma mater, President James asks that in making his will Dr. Galloway give the university his library of 500 bound volumes and requests especially that he bequeath a thousand pamphlets that Dr. Galloway has classified according to the decimal system. The pamphlets are worth a fortune and cover every known branch of science and technical knowledge. They are classified with a system of 5000 cards. The request will be granted.

BIG CIRCUS PROUD OF ITS 'INFANT'

Baby Hippopotamus Is Pet of the Sells-Floto Aggregation.

Of course, every self-respecting circus has a baby. The Sells-Floto people have several, but one they are most proud of is "Bon," the baby hippopotamus. How he happened to be christened "Bon" is not of any grave consequence. "Bon" is a French name, and the French for "good" perhaps that's the why of it.

We don't know whether "Bon" appreciates his name, but he answers to it and fills his requirements.

"Know his name?" "Almost every animal trainer, the other day, when some guileless stranger in the crowd wanted to know whether "Bon" was cognizant of the fact when he was personally addressed. "Know his name?" "Yes," I should say he did. Don't you, "Bon?"

"Bon" winked one sleepy eye at his keeper, ruffled his porous cuticle and opened his cavernous mouth.

"That's the way he has of expressing himself," said his keeper. "Almost every time I speak to him he opens his mouth. It's his way of telling you he understands what you are talking about. Oh, he's wise—"Bon" is.

"Hurt anybody?" Oh, I don't know. That depends. Maybe it wouldn't be a good thing for a stranger to go into his cage. He'd probably resent that as an intrusion on his privacy. But, say, I could go to sleep in "Bon's" den and he'd never make a fuss. We're good friends, you see, and hips are mighty sociable with keepers when they know them."

Though the hippopotamus is a very timid animal despite its huge size and great power, it sweats real blood, and through fear or anger, but from the cold, to which it is not by nature accustomed.

The Sells-Floto shows come to Oakland on Monday next for a two-days' engagement. It must not be forgotten that this year the price of admission has been cut in half, a fact which will undoubtedly tend to make this ever popular attraction still more so.

MISSING OAKLAND GIRL FOUND IN MODESTO

Pretty Mae Atwell Wanders Away Without Informing Mother.

IMPATIENT AT RESTRAINT SHE GOES ON VISIT

Vacation With Friend Results in Calling Out the Local Detectives.

Impatient under the restraint imposed upon her in her home life, and feeling the lure of freedom and adventure, Miss Mae Atwell, the pretty 18-year-old daughter of Mrs. Anna Atwell of 553 Thirtieth street, left her home three days ago without giving her mother any intimation of her intention to leave home. The girl went with a Miss Brown, a friend, to Modesto, and there spent her little vacation while her mother, in her anxiety over the girl's disappearance, invoked the aid of the police, as she believed the girl had been kidnapped.

This morning when the mother had become almost frantic with anxiety and worry over the fate of her daughter, she received a telegram from Modesto, which read as follows:

"Mother: I am all right, with Miss Brown. Will be home today."

INFORMS POLICE. "MAE."

Mrs. Atwell hastened to inform the police that her daughter was in safety with friends and to have the search for the girl discontinued. According to the police the girl was kept under rigid restraint in her home life. Mrs. Atwell is a widow and since her husband's death she has had the exclusive care of her daughter Mae. Fearing that the loss of the paternal influence might have a bad effect, she was very strict in her manner toward the girl.

Mae Atwell is between 18 and 19 years of age and is very pretty. She is of the brunette type, has brown hair and eyes, and is a petite, well-dressed girl. With the spring came a spirit of adventure, a desire for freedom and liberty. Submitting herself to the "wanderlust" she did not tell her mother of her plans for three days vacation in the country, for fear she would be denied.

Quietly packing a suitcase with a few necessities, the girl slipped out of her mother's anxiety. As a result a number of detectives were placed on the trail, and every effort was made by the police departments of several cities to locate the girl.

Kytka Declares Wrapper on Poison Was Identical With That Used by Prisoner.

SAN FRANCISCO, April 23.—Theodore Kytka, the local handwriting expert, this morning identified paper, found in the room of John's Walter Wilson at the Netherlands Hotel, as similar to that in which the poison was wrapped which was responsible for the death of Henry Boas. The witness admitted that he was not necessarily a paper expert, having never had anything to do with the manufacture of pulp, but declared that under the microscope the two papers seemed to be identical.

Counsel for the defendant attempted to rehearse the testimony of yesterday in which it was shown that Kytka occasionally made mistakes, but the court ruled against him.

WANTS $25,000 FROM OAKLAND TRACTION CO.

Suit was filed in the Superior Court today by Mrs. Mary Sears against the Oakland Traction Company for $25,000 damages, alleging that on April 17 of this year, while attempting to alight from a car at Fifty-first avenue and East Fourteenth street, she was thrown to the ground in such a manner that she sustained severe injuries. She claims that the car started before she had alighted. S. Sears, the husband, is also a party with plaintiff in the suit.

LOSES CHANCE TO BECOME BARONESS

Grace Cameron in Trousers Broke Off the Love Match.

Grace Cameron, a pretty and accomplished actress, well known to theatergoers, now appearing at the Orpheum Theater, has become quite famous in theatrical circles for her unsatisfactory taste for adventure. Had it not been for this same love she might have been a baroness.

Miss Cameron was taking a special course a few years ago in operatic singing in Milan. While there she met an Italian nobleman, the Baron of Roselli, a young man of much wealth and high social standing. At the conclusion of her course Miss Cameron returned to America, where, according to arrangements, the Baron was to follow and the wedding was to take place. The Baron arrived in due time and seemed to be more in love than ever with his betrothed.

MASQUERADES AS MAN.

Preparations for the wedding were rushed and the beautiful Miss Cameron was being showered with congratulations and good wishes by her companions in stage life when there was a rift. It was a suit of clothes which made the course of true love pause. When the nobleman came face to face with his betrothed in broad daylight and upon the public street clad in the habiliments of a man it was more than he could bear and all negotiations were called off.

Miss Cameron had a reason for her masquerading. A relative had charge of experiments with the submarine boat Shark, at the Brooklyn Navy Yard. Miss Cameron long had cherished a desire to take a cruise in the submarine boat and she persuaded her official relative so that at the last he consented to take her on board on condition that she disguise herself as a midshipman.

Next Monday morning A. D. Wilson, vice-president of the Security Bank and Trust Company, is to begin the construction of a modern business building immediately east of the First Methodist church on Fourteenth street opposite the new Capwell building now in course of construction. It will have a frontage of fifty and a depth of 100 feet, will be four stories in height with a mezzanine and basement, the last-mentioned of which will be used for display purposes. This will give the tenants the use practically of six stories. The structure will be of brick and steel, of ornate exterior and has been rented for a period of ten years by the furniture firm of Bussey & Milhan, which is now located on San Pablo avenue near Eighteenth street. The building contractor is Percy Walker, who is now building the Hotel Oakland. The new structure is to cost $100,000.

Peculiar Results of Mexican Armistice.

The armistice between the Mexican belligerents, which was signed by General Francisco I. Madero, as provisional president and commander-in-chief of the insurgents, and by General Navarro, in command of the federal army stationed at Juarez, and approved by the Mexican government, applies, it now appears, to a narrowly circumscribed zone which is only a small section of the territory in rebellion. The situation created by it is, therefore, very peculiar. While hostilities have been suspended along the Arizona, New Mexico and Texas line, in the remainder of the republic where the spirit of rebellion is rampant, there is no truce between the insurgents and the federals. The rebels are more active than ever in the State of Sinaloa, along the west coast of which railway communication has been stopped by the destruction of railroad bridges along the lines of the Southern Pacific Company and the port of Mazatlan is in a state of siege. The city is represented to be surrounded by insurgents, its water supply cut off by them, and a Mexican gunboat, for a time, shelled the rebel camp from the harbor, discontinuing its fire only when the foreign consuls intervened with a strong protest.

These conditions point conclusively to the unstable and disorganized character of the insurrection. It is being carried on evidently on a go-as-you-please plan, with no guiding hand or responsible head and no central authority to control it. The so-called revolutionary junta with headquarters at El Paso and New York is merely an irresponsible body of political foes of the existing government egging on the revolution with the view of seizing any advantage its progress may offer which will further the political interests of its membership. If the revolution succeeds they expect to profit by it; if it proves a fizzle their persons will be secure and their loss will be confined solely to a thwarted ambition.

The unstable character of the insurrection is proved by the desertions of the adventurers who joined the rebel forces, as soon as the season of inactivity set in through the operation of the armistice. Madero's force in the neighborhood of Juarez is apparently melting away, and although he has been compelled to issue a threatening circular among his followers to keep them together, the extension of the armistice promises to reduce his besieging army to such small proportions that in event hostilities are again resumed he will be powerless to resist any sortie the Juarez garrison may make.

The city of Liverpool is now constructing a new dock, known as the Gladstone, on the bank of the Mersey at the north end of the dock system. It is to be 1020 feet in length and is designed to accommodate the giant vessels now building and to provide for the 1000-foot ship of 60,000 tons which it is anticipated will be built in future. It will cost $2,480,000. The dock will be enclosed on three sides with a concrete wall fifty feet thick. The fourth side and quays will be built with the material excavated from the dock. A unique feature of the new dock is that it will be readily convertible into a huge grading dock.

Alfred Austin, the English poet laureate, is said to be giving the finishing touches to a coronation ode. It is hoped that it will be better stuff than the alleged poetry he has worked off on a patient but sorely afflicted world since he was appointed the successor of the immortal Tennyson.

The tide of immigration to Canada is running strong. A recent report of the Minister of the Interior at Ottawa shows that from April, 1910, to February last 275,000 immigrants entered the Dominion. Of this number 104,000 came from the British Isles, 60,000 from the continent of Europe and 107,000 from the United States. The latter came chiefly from the neighboring border States. The tide of British immigration showed an increase of 109 per cent over the corresponding period of the previous year; European immigrants 53 per cent and the United States 24 per cent. It is represented, however, that the immigration from the United States to Canada during March showed a large increase over the same month in 1910. The expansion of the railway systems in the Dominion and the opening up of vast areas of agricultural land which the government is selling at low prices to actual settlers are the prime causes for this large influx of immigrants into the Canadian provinces.

Heroic Deeds of Daring.

An Orisko, North Dakota, dispatch reports the heroic rescue from drowning of a girl who had fallen into a well twenty-two feet deep and only eighteen inches in diameter by H. R. Olson, who volunteered to be lowered down headfirst, and when he reached the bottom seized the girl, gave orders to the five men who had lowered him to hoist himself and burden to the surface. This was done. The girl was barely alive, so the story goes, and the strain on the rescuer had drawn blood in a stream from his chest and arms. The story is a little doubtful in statement, for if there was enough water in the well to submerge the girl unless she went down headfirst also, it is not clear how he could have dived into the water to grasp her and then given orders to the men on top to haul them up.

However, whether the story is true or fishy, it does not anywhere equal in daring the achievement of a boy figuring in the annals of well-boring in the oilfields of Pennsylvania in the early history of the industry in that State and which has been well-authenticated. Through some misadventure on the part of a gang of well-borers, a drill was dropped when the well had reached a thousand feet in depth and all attempts to recover it with an automatic clutch had failed.

The accident threatened the whole enterprise with failure and ruin stared the prospecting well-borers in the face. The casing of the well was twelve inches in diameter. One of the well-borers was a slender youth who daintily volunteered to descend into the well and fasten the clutch to the head of the drill. Careful measurements of his body showed that when outstretched with extended arms he was small enough to make the trip to the bottom when stripped to the buff. He was, therefore, prepared for the ordeal by having his body carefully oiled to neutralize all danger from friction and securely lashed to the end of the rope so that his hands grasped the clutch. He was then hoisted over the mouth of the well head downward and promptly dropped into it.

The transit of the one thousand feet was made in one minute, the mark on the rope showing when he had reached the bottom and a prearranged signal of success being given he was raised to the surface again by the donkey engine with the same rapidity as he went down, bringing with him the lost drill. The boy had lost all consciousness, however, before reaching the open air, but being uninjured was soon revived. The incident is quoted as the most daring act ever performed in the oilfields, and has been vouched for by competent witnesses as absolutely true. Of course, that was a dry well and there was no danger from drowning, but was simply a test of human endurance.

NOT TO BE LIGHTLY BROKEN

—NEW YORK HERALD.

Damaging Effects of Electrolysis.

In all probability electrolysis will be found on investigation to be responsible for the bursting of the Broadway water main, and that the real source of the trouble is the current employed in the operation of the street railway cars. After performing its function in the electric motor, the current seeks a route of the least resistance to escape. The water main offers it, as the two elements of water and electricity have a special affinity for each other. Electrolysis or the gradual rotting of the water main follows. In all cities where electric power is transmitted and used in the public streets, the same trouble is encountered and the water main suffers through the grounding of the current near where the pipe lies.

Undoubtedly the rapid rotting of asphalt pavements on streets carrying electric car lines is due to the same cause. The wet surface of the asphalt pavement furnishes the return current as it passes through the motor, wheel and rail, from the feed wire of the overhead trolley the most favorable means of escape and distribution. The current spreads itself through the entire film of water covering the pavement and rapidly rots or pits the asphaltum sheet in its final passage to the earth. The deteriorating effect of the return current on asphalt or bitumen pavements is plainly seen on those trolley railway tracks where the rail and the paving material come in contact. The asphalt is quickly eaten away by the current. Electric street railway engineers have endeavored to overcome the destructive action of the return current on pavements by shielding the rail on each side with cemented stone blocks.

Both electrical and hydraulic engineers have sought for a remedy for electrolysis and a safeguard against its attack, but they have met only with partial success. The hydraulic engineer knows that the best assurance of safety to his water mains is in locating them as remotely as possible from any electric current line.

The wool-growing industry in New Zealand and Australia has been steadily increasing in volume and value during the past ten years despite all drawbacks. In 1901 the total receipts of Australasian wool received in Great Britain amounted to 1,745,000 bales, valued at approximately $99,000,000. In 1910, 2,410,000 bales were received which were valued at $219,000,000. Two-thirds of the wool came from Australia and was sold in the London market for $146,000,000. Wool was sold also in the Australian markets the same year, which brought to the colonial wool-growers an additional $111,780,000, making the total value of the output of this one Australian industry for the year $257,780,000.

Niles has set an example in the matter of cleaning streets and backyards which is worthy of emulation by every city and town in Alameda county. Niles has been conspicuously progressive for several years past.

An effort to standardize all green fruit shipped to eastern markets which was started by Horticultural Commissioner Jeffrey about two years ago, has been revived this year. All green fruit should be packed uniformly and a fixed standard established for the minimum size of the fruit and its degree of ripeness. Deceptive packing of poor, immature and undersized green fruit has done more harm to the growers and packers themselves than any unfavorable condition that has beset the industry.

HARD LINES

The human family is inclined to be of optimistic mind; it seeks the silver lining still and welcomes pleasure with a will. But still of earth's most sinister sounds, remaineth this—No game; wet grounds. Time is when we can view, sans pain, the gentle patter of the rain; we know the helpful flood will pass; we mark the words, "more rain, more grass;" but Woe overtakes us on his rounds, when this we hear—No game; wet grounds. We love the pageant and the press; the pitcher still has power to bless; we love to hear the raucous cry of "Score No game; wet grounds."—St. Louis Times.

A VOICE FROM THE AIR

The possibilities of the aeroplane as an engine of war, apprehension of which has for the moment taken the place of last year's battleship scare in England, are ominously foreshadowed in the news from London that Sir Hiram Maxim, Mr. Claude Graham-White and the French aviator Bleriot are to combine for the building of military airplanes capable of carrying a load of explosives weighing one thousand pounds in addition to the pilot and engineer charged with the delectable task of dropping the death dealing, properly destroying bombs with accuracy and dispatch. Fortunately, this plan is as yet only theoretically in the air. There is still time to prevent its realization. And, no less fortunately, there are precedents on which to base the hope that some agreement concerning the exclusion of this threatened horror from future warfare may be reached. The brutal effectiveness of the expansive bullet led to the concerted proscription of its use by the civilized nations against each other, though savages were excluded from the benefit of this humane ruling. It is still more pertinent that this very point of aerial war was covered, at least provisionally, by one of the declarations of the Hague conference of 1899, "to prohibit the launching of projectiles and explosives from balloons or by other similar new methods." Again, the great powers of Europe have long had a policy of "lo-calling" war, of preventing it from spreading, as in the case of the brief Greco-Turkish encounter in 1897. Is it unreasonable to hope that the great powers of the world may agree to restrict the scope of warfare to land and sea? A strong display of international public opinion might achieve this. Perhaps it will. Let us at least have air peace, if world peace is not yet to be.

WITH FEAR IN MIND

What foolish things we all do under the pressure of fear, says Orison Swett Marden, in Success Magazine. Discouragement colors the judgment. I have known men who own their own homes to sell their property and do the most ridiculous things in order to raise money, because they were afraid they would come to grief in their business if they did not have it, when as a matter of fact there was no real cause for anxiety whatever. When you are at your wits' end and do not know which way to turn, you are in danger, for you are in no condition to plan anything or do the best thing. You should do your planning when you are cool and calm. You are not capable of correct judgment of using good sense, when there is fear or doubt or despondency in your mind. Sound judgment comes from a perfectly working brain, unclouded, untroubled faculties. Never act upon that which is suggested when you are in a state of fear or anxiety. Carry out your plans, the course laid down when your brain was clear, your head level. When fear is in the mind the mental forces are scattered and we are not capable of vigorous concentration. One reason why so many men do not get on in the world is because they decide important matters when the mind is in no condition to decide anything; when they are full of fear that they are going to have trouble, that they are going to sustain great loss, that there is going to be a financial panic. Things done under such pressure are never done wisely, and wisdom comes only from a level head, a calm, clear brain.

20 YEARS AGO IN OAKLAND

The Pacific Theological seminary celebrated commencement last night. Members of the choir rendered several numbers. The singers were E. R. Galloway, C. L. Eby, A. S. McLellan, H. Perks, J. Parsons, W. Hardy, J. J. Staub, W. G. Trower, A. H. Hauman, C. Reeves, T. Hendry and C. D. Steele. The following constitute this year's graduating class at the Alameda High school: Hulda Thomson, Elsie Harnden, Rose Traube, Agnes Crowley, Allen Penfield, Charles Field, Harry Frost, Charles Waymire and Douglas Waterman. The graduating exercises will be held in the Park opera house Friday evening, May 2. Philip Morgan of San Leandro, sent in the first box of raspberries to market on April 24. Thomas Prather, Charles G. Yale, Captain John T. Wright, Truman H. Allen and A. W. Craig have been appointed by temporary president of the council, Tallen Evans, a committee on permanent organization for that body. The letter carriers, divided into two nines, named the Hendrickses and the Morrisons, indulged in a game of baseball at the corner of Twelfth and Webster streets yesterday afternoon. Cleveland Dam was the first umpire but he was beaten to the ground six times in the first inning and had to retire in favor of Police Clerk O'Brien. Charles F. Hubbard and Joseph Tobin played the final match of the Lakeside Tennis club's tournament yesterday, which resulted in Hubbard becoming the champion. There is hope for the Oakland baseball nine yet. One has run away and two must go back to Washington. Now if the colonel will let the other six go he can retain the club's name. George H. Magee, who successfully conducted the sensational raid against Outlaw Frank Fray in the Antelope valley a couple of years ago, is in the city on a visit. He has participated in the Apache wars in Arizona and other frontier troubles and the number of scalps at his belt is large. J. F. Davis, J. M. Davis and others have filed a protest with the council against the opening of Twentieth street from Castro to Grove.

RHYMED STUFF

SPRING ARITHMETIC.
It was the busy hour of 4.
When from a city hardware store
Emerged a gentleman who bore
1 hoe,
1 spade,
1 wheelbarrow.
From thence our hero promptly went
Into a seed establishment
And for these things his money spent:
1 peck of bulbs,
1 job lot of shrubs,
1 quart of assorted seeds.
He has a garden under way
And if he's fairly lucky, say,
He'll have about the last of May
1 squash vine,
1 eggplant,
1 radish.
—Washington Herald.

The Kansas City man whose black-haired wife divorced him because she found a red hair on his coat lapel said it came there from his office hairbrush, which was used by his redheaded stenographer. The judge didn't believe the explanation and neither do we, but it was a classy sort of lie, nevertheless.—Houston Post.

IN STATE HOSPITAL;
CLAIMS CONSPIRACY

LOS ANGELES, April 28.—On stray scraps of paper, Aaron C. Smith, a former well-to-do local mining man, now an inmate of the state hospital for the insane at Stockton, has written to E. M. Wade revealing what he declares to be a conspiracy of enemies to confiscate his properties. In the letter Smith declares he is prevented from communicating with the outside world, and had to smuggle out the written message. That the letter received by Wade came out of the institution under such circumstances is suggested by the fact that although dated February 25 it was not mailed until April 21, nearly two months later, and bears a Paso Robles postmark. He charges that he was railroaded to the hospital.

EMPEROR RECEIVES.

who will leave Saturday for Berlin to visit her daughter, was received in audience by the empress yesterday.

GRAY HAIR WILL MAKE YOU LOOK OLD

Use Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur and Your Gray Hair Will Quickly Vanish.

Gray hair is a mark of age, and nothing that can be said as to its beauty will effect the disadvantages of this mark of age set upon your brow.
Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Hair Remedy darkens the hair and restores it to its youthful beauty. Grandmothers and their granddaughters before them used sage and sulphur for darkening their hair. Nothing has ever been found more effective for this purpose than these two time-honored remedies, but Wyeth, a modern chemist, has combined the two with other ingredients which makes a delightful dressing for the hair, and which not only removes every trace of discoloration but promotes the growth of the hair. It also stops the hair from falling out and makes it beautiful.
All druggists are authorized to refund the money if it fails to do exactly as represented.
This preparation is offered to the public at fifty cents a bottle, and is recommended by all druggists.

ORCHESTRAL CLUB
PLANS TO GROW

Members of Stewart Organization Meets With Stratton Presiding.

At a meeting held at Maple Hall by the associate members of the Stewart
Orchestral Club, it was decided, if sufficient support can be secured, to enlarge the scope of the orchestra and secure its permanency as a representative local symphony orchestra. Frederick S. Stratton, Collector of the Port of San Francisco, presided at the meeting, at which ways and means of interesting more persons in the organization were discussed.

The following committee was appointed by the meeting to co-operate with the larger body of associate members: F. S. Stratton, chairman; Wallace M. Alexander, F. M. Smith, George W. Scott, O. E. Hotie, C. Z. Merritt,
E. H. Garthwaite and Mrs. Garthwaite and Miss Cora Jenkins.

It is the intention of the committee to increase the list of associate members to at least 400 before the next concert, which is to be given at the Macdonough Theater on May 18. Among the prominent Oakland people who are working for the success of the undertaking are: Mrs. E. H. Benjamin, Arthur W. Moore, Ralph T. Fisher, Fred L. Button, Mrs. Harriet Murray, George H.
Collins, A. S. Corman, Professor Eugene

OCEANOGRAPHER IS GIVEN A MEDAL

Chicago Society Recognizes
Work Accomplished by Sir
John Murray.

CHICAGO, April 28.—The fifth Helen Culver gold medal, conferred by the Geographic society of Chicago for extraordinary scientific attainment, was bestowed last night upon Sir John Murray, K. C. B., F. R. S., recognized as one of the foremost oceanographers of the day.
He delivered a lecture before the society at the Art Institute, upon recent discoveries in connection with the study of oceanic conditions the world over. Sir John Murray offered to contribute $10,000 should reciprocal agreements be made whereby Canada and the United States should begin a joint study of the great lakes.

"I see no greater field for your investigation along scientific lines than this great system of lakes," he said. "You can have no idea of the economic value and the educational profit resulting from such an investigation until it is taken up.
I would urge seriously such a task upon you."

CAPTAIN CONBOY INTENDS TO RESIDE IN RICHMOND

RICHMOND, April 28.—Former Police Captain Michael Joseph Conboy, who shot and killed Bernard Lagan in San Francisco, has announced here that he will make his future home in Richmond. Conboy was over here during the week negotiating for three or four lots on a New-Avenue corner, in the vicinity of Tenth street. He told the agent he intended to move to Richmond and make this city his home. He gave no intimation of what line of activity he would pursue here. He has a place on the police force if he wants it.

Physicians and chemists assert that this similation and absorption. The food eleregularly used for several months. Most

Judge Graham Sets His Face Against Repetition of Japanese Ceremony.

SAN FRANCISCO, April 23.—There will be no more photograph marriages in San Francisco between the Japanese citizens of this state and bashful young maids of the Nipponese Isle, according to a statement made by Judge Graham this morning. Two weeks ago three brides of sixteen summers were joined in wedlock to husbands whom they had never before seen, after guardians had been appointed for them.

Today Attorney Carl Lindsay petitioned that Miss Mabel Lamb be selected as guardian for Unaga Sakuda, another Japanese girl who is under the legal age for marriage in the United States. Attorney Partridge, who has represented the court in connection with these matters, opposed the application and Judge Graham promptly stated that he could not have a whole host of Japanese brides under his supervision.

'PARTY STRONGER THAN CONSTITUTION'—WHEELER President of State University Points Out Drift of Government; Calls Schools Safeguards

UNIVERSITY OF CALIFORNIA, April 23.—President Benjamin Ide Wheeler delivered in California hall the concluding lecture in the series on "American Democracy and Education," discussing the origin and development of party government in the United States and the peculiar power of the executive.

"The political mechanism does not make the people what they are. It is very incomplete and but partly matches the need. The popular will is not measured by the mechanism nor dependent upon it. It is sometimes hampered by it and is sometimes helped by it. The lack of a mechanism for expressing the popular will. Then the popular will invents extra constitutional methods. These having once received popular approval take rank as a part of the standard machinery along with the regular ones. President Wheeler showed how this was the case with party governments in the United States, stating that George Washington was violently opposed to the existence of political parties and that no provision was made for parties in the constitution.

"Because we left the parties out of account and prepared no mechanism for them they became corrupt, and lurked in dark places.

NATIONAL CONVENTION.
"To understand American political life, it is most important to attend a national political convention once in four years. One is obliged to go a week in advance in order to see the steam roller get ready. The president is nominated in advance of the convention, but one can see the vice-president nominated and the national committee appointed with the study of a quadrennial political convention, all other methods by which we are governed sink into insignificance. This method was not established in full until 1840. The convention is a power very much more distinctly pronounced than the constitution for you can argue away a constitution but not the act of a political convention in nominating a president or vice-president."

GROWING DISTRICT.

President Wheeler took up the general custom of electing to congress as representatives only such men as live in the district they represent, and said: "The constitution and in general the laws do not require it, public opinion does. It is very serious matter to the growing distrust of representative government shows itself in requiring that we have our representatives at close hand, where we can get at them.

"England, which makes no such requirement, gets the service of the very best men. Today in America there is no certainty that a man who goes into public life can continue. He goes out and cannot start over again."

PRESIDENT AS TRIBUNE.

President Wheeler pointed out how members of congress had been gradually shown of their power.

"Between 1800 and 1820 party caucuses within congress nominated candidates for the presidency and the presidency. The people objected to the congressional caucus, Jackson in 1828 was a people's candidate with the desire and promise to go to Washington and teach congress its place.

"Since Jackson's day the president has been recognized as the direct representative of the people—their tribune. The people freed the office first from the congressional caucus, took it over and made it their own. They have seldom been deceived. The president who does not establish himself as the agent and representative of the people, if he should seem to be the tool of congress and subject to congress his days would be short.

PREVAILING DISTRICT.

"The development of popular government has been aided in recent years by prevailing distrust of the misrepresentative tendencies of representative government. President Wheeler attributed this condition to several causes.

"Individual responsibility is liable to be lost in the rule of the majority. It is rare that people can get justice from a committee.

"The most important questions are not

STRANGER QUERIES; STRANGER REPLIES

Correspondent Sees no Sacrilege in Christ's Picture on Stage.

EDITOR TRIBUNE: In your issue of current date there is an article by Mr. Franklin Lederer on the subject, "The Still Voice," which is being played at the Orpheum theater this week.

Mr. Lederer questions the propriety of the use of a likeness of Jesus Christ on the stage. He also asks what right has a "stage" actor to use a likeness of Christ or impersonate his voice on the stage.

For the first query should say: Where is the impropriety? Is He Himself not with us always? Are we not His children, and does He not love us all? Is it only the people who sit in church pews whom He loves? If He loves us all would He not be glad to lend us the value of His likeness? Christ did not shun the multitude. He fed them, taught them, loved them and died for them. If anyone might be helped by His likeness, thank you He would say, "Take my likeness from this place!"

As to the "right" of any "stage" actor to use His likeness in a play the question is too childish to take seriously. Does Christ belong to any one set, class or people? Why may not a actor or writer have a message to deliver from Him to the world as well as any one else? Perhaps Mr. Lederer's "astonishment" prevented him getting the lesson this little story taught; indeed, his brief synopsis of same would so indicate. However, the lesson is there, beautifully and poignantly told, and there is no one, from the purest to the most wicked, who would not be benefited by listening to "the still voice."

Mr. Lederer pleads guilty of being curious. He says he is curious about civilization this week of the woods! I too am a stranger here, but so far have been shocked by only one custom—some people go to the theater on Sunday!

Very truly yours, E. S. HALL.

BETTER LIGHTING TO BE RESULT OF FATALITY
BERKELEY, April 23.—Agitation for more adequate street lighting and another bridge across Codornal creek will probably result from the verdict of the coroner's jury yesterday afternoon in the case of C. W. Matern, the Oakland man who was killed by the plunging of his automobile into the creek from the Albany side. The verdict was to the effect that death resulted from an accidental fracture of the base of the skull and recommended better lighting of the streets in that section.

foreseen by the voters when choosing their representatives, as for example, the election of United States senators. This is one of the most potent ways in which legislative action has been rooted out. The representative while making promises to the people may have made private pledges of which the people know nothing. Money is needed because so many do not know the issues or parties and do not go to the polls, unless they are stirred up at somebody's expense and the money comes from some interest.

"The increased power of wealth may vie with a man's responsibility to his constituents. He may choose the sure refuge of the money power rather than to insure himself unpopular favor."

DEARTH OF STRONG MEN.
The reasons for the dearth of strong men in political life were summed up as being the attractions of business and of the professions, the limitations of candidacy for a man's own district, the division of functions of government, the placing of a few men on the important committee of congress who absorb the important tasks, the massiveness of party machinery which absorbs the energy of candidates, and finally Washington as a specialized governmental city compels the retirement of men in congress from their ordinary affairs.

RISE OF PARTY GOVERNMENT.
"Party government," continued President Wheeler, "arose out of the formation of parties. It is a serious matter to wipe out the party contracts involved in the separation of the states and in the division of functions of government."

"As things are at present, the party tends to become a national agency for the development of candidacies and a syndicate for the distribution of offices. The national committee comes after eight years of thorough control.

"The political life of the nation is not entirely governed by this machine, by this quick growing monster, is due to its sensitiveness to public opinion. When public opinion sleeps the machine awakes as it pleases. When public opinion awakes and speaks, the great beast cowers and fawns at its master's voice."

SAFEGUARD IN SCHOOLS.

"Now when we are drifting from the landmarks and venturing out upon an unknown sea, it is a serious matter to know how to create a community to administer this government.

"Our safeguard is in our schools. The responsibility is on the shoulders of the teachers. If the school and the teachers do their duty there is some hope of enlightenment. The school and the church are our safeguards. One in five of the population is concerned with the schools as teacher or pupil.

"Public opinion governs and must be enlightened. There must be self-control in the life of the people. Patriotism must be taught in the schools and the knowledge of how our government is equipped for the salvation of the country is in the hands of those who teach."

Blazing a New Path in Shoe Selling

Cost Plus 5%

YOU folks who buy shoes, ponder on this! Read every word!

You are paying for your shoes ten, twenty, maybe thirty per cent. over net basic cost. The exact amount of this percentage depends on where and when you buy, and from whom.

—Because the Retailer feels he must have twenty per cent. average profit on his goods to keep him happy. And the average Manufacturer wants ten to fifteen.

Now comes the Regal Shoe Company, with four enormous factories, employing over 3,000 hands, making nearly two million pairs of $3.50 to $5.50 shoes last year—and offers you its entire output at just exactly Five Per Cent. Profit over measured, sworn-to, cost.

Think of that! Five per cent. above certified cost, instead of possibly fifteen, twenty, thirty per cent. above variable cost. And this from the same company that gave you the Buzz Saw expose of cheap soles, and "The Window of the Sole"—the same Company that eighteen years ago started the Factory-to-Consumer plan and today sells its output in 43 States through nearly 1,000 Regal Shoe Stores and Agencies.

This new "5% Profit" departure in Regal Shoe selling comes from the one shoe concern in the world that has always given you not only advanced styles but advanced economic methods of selling.

The Regal "Cost Plus 5%" plan means for us a larger volume of business—of course. But for you it means emancipation from the "Get-what-you-can" method of selling goods.

It means that you need no longer be the slave of a trade-custom that arbitrarily fixes prices at the selling end instead of at the making end.

Five per cent. above cost means—for you—a direct, positive, known saving in shoe money that you can see with your eyes and feel with your hands. It means a positive, accurate system of buying and selling that operates with exact justice and exact economy in every locality on the map.

Last year we made and sold over one million, eight hundred thousand pairs of $3.50 to $5.50 shoes. Ponder on that! In dollars and cents the public paid for these shoes nearly Eight Million Dollars.

One cent a pair saving on this output would have handed back to our customers the handsome economy of eighteen thousand dollars. At ten cents a pair, the saving would have given back to them $180,000!

Under the new Regal (5% Profit) Plan you now buy any pair of Regal Shoes under a sworn certified statement of exact cost, figured out to a decimal of a cent. No guesswork. No hit-and-miss estimate; no equivocation; no room for misunderstanding, or doubt.

Regalized Shoe Selling blazes a new economic path in merchandizing which other manufacturers must ultimately follow.

So, go you today to the window of your nearest Regal Shoe Store. See what that 5% Profit over a known cost means to you. Then go inside and ask the salesman to take any pair of Regal Shoes out of any carton and explain to you the cost statement on the tag—every item of cost in that shoe. This is how you may more intelligently buy Regal Shoes on a basis of exact cost as manufactured in quantities of nearly two million pairs per year.

ELIMINATE THREE PROPOSED SITES

Lake Merced Tract, Bay View and Waterfront Not Available for Big Fair.

SAN FRANCISCO, April 28.—A definite step toward final location of the site of the Panama-Pacific Exposition company was taken yesterday afternoon when the executive committee voted to eliminate the Lake Merced tract, Bay View and the water front scheme from consideration, the vote being taken on each of these proposed locations separately.

There are remaining officially before the board four sites for further consideration—Golden Gate park, Harbor View, the Sausalito tract and Islais creek lands. The executive committee met yesterday afternoon at 3 o'clock for the second session of the series of meetings which are expected to terminate with final decision on the site question as far as this committee is concerned.

Aside from the voting which eliminated Bay View, Lake Merced and the water front, yesterday's session was largely devoted to a conference with Charles W. Leavitt, the landscape engineer, who was questioned at great length as to the practical features of his ideas for dividing the exposition among several locations in different parts of the city.

The executive committee will meet again this afternoon to continue its deliberations concerning the site, and it is expected that these meetings may be continued until Wednesday, when there will be a meeting of the board of directors of the exposition company.

BURGLAR'S TRAIL LEADS TO HOTEL

Big Street Crowd Across Bay Chases Him, Lustily Blowing Police Whistles.

SAN FRANCISCO, April 28.—After being surprised in the act of ransacking an apartment in the St. Lawrence hotel, 702 Vallejo street, at 5 o'clock this morning, a burglar made his escape only to be tracked and arrested by the police a half hour later.

Joseph Valle and William A. Ketchum were asleep in their room, when the former was awakened by the stealthy movements of the thief. He jumped to his feet and tried to grapple with the intruder, who had a pair of trousers in his hand. The burglar made a dash for the door and was seen to leave the building by several pedestrians, who followed him, blowing police whistles.

The chase led up Vallejo street to Card alley, thence to Green street, where the burglar was observed by Policeman Steiner. The officer followed him and saw him enter the Dixie hotel. Together with Patrolmen Bigelow and Heagney a search of the place was made and Whalen Marshall was arrested. He was partially identified by the two men whose room had been entered and was booked for burglary. He had a 38-caliber revolver on his person. The sum of $6 had been taken from Ketchum's pockets.

SEARCH FAILS TO FIND TOM JOHNSON'S WILL

NEW YORK, April 28.—Mayor Tom L. Johnson of Cleveland left no will, according to a statement made by Mrs. Margaret J. Johnson, the widow, in applying to the surrogate court here to be appointed administratrix of the estate in this city.

Mrs. Johnson is residing temporarily with her daughter Elizabeth, 2150 Lottin Johnson, at 616 West One Hundred and Sixteenth street. In her petition she said she had concluded her husband left no will, as she was unable to find a search and failed to find one. She said the value of the estate in this county amounts to $175,000. The appointment will follow, as a matter of course, since her children all consent.

SANITARIUM NEED URGED BY SOCIETY

County Organization Seeks Homes for Tuberculosis Sufferers.

The following circular has been issued by the Alameda County Society for the Study and Prevention of Tuberculosis:

"About one in every seven of our people die from tuberculosis, yet there is no place in Alameda county where they can go for hospital care, except to the county infirmary. Many of these people have some means and are willing to pay for treatment, but the doors of all our hospitals are closed to them and they have difficulty in even finding places to rest if their disease is known.

"The Alameda County Society for the Study and Prevention of Tuberculosis was instrumental in the erection of the group of new buildings for tuberculosis patients at the county hospital near San Leandro and is doing noble work in its clinics at 525 Seventeenth street, Oakland, but they are in great need of a sanitarium where patients able to pay could go for a nominal fee.

"Every day the society hears complaints about the attitude of property owners towards people suffering with tuberculosis and they hope soon to have a place where these patients can have proper care before it is too late."

In remitting, please send to states when the amount is less than 25c; on amounts above 25c no postage is needed. Order, express or collect bank draft. (Don't send cash.) We will gladly refund your complete list of valuable "Sunkist" Oranges, Lemons and Best Juices for premiums.

The juiciest, finest-flavored oranges are now packed in individual wrappers, labeled "Sunkist."

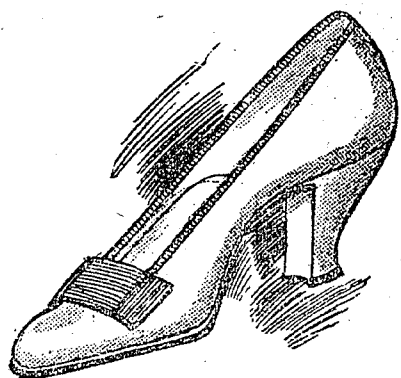

They are the select crop of five thousand orange farmers who do their own packing, shipping and selling.

They grade and select their crop into "firsts," "seconds," etc. The "firsts," called "Sunkists," are fancy, tree-ripened, hand-picked, seedless, fibreless, thin-skinned oranges—every individual orange a perfect specimen of the finest variety of oranges. They are not only more healthful and more palatable than other oranges, but they are actually cheaper, for they are nearly all meat and nourishment.

Your dealers sell "Sunkist" Oranges. Ask for them. You will know them by the tissue paper wrapper in which each "Sunkist" Orange is packed. On the wrapper note the label, "Sunkist." Keep all the wrappers. They are worth money to you.

Best Lemons
Come in "Sunkist" Wrappers
You can judge lemons by the "clothes" they wear. If they wear "Sunkist" wrappers they are juicy and good, for they are not thick-skinned or pithy. They are just as fine as "Sunkist" Oranges, and their wrappers are equally valuable.

ALUMNI TO JOIN STUDENTS IN BIG BENEFIT SHOW

R. C. WHEELER, chairman of committee planning Glee Club Show.

UNIVERSITY OF CALIFORNIA, April 28.—A vaudeville bill, numbering among its twelve acts much of the best amateur and professional talent of the bay cities, will be given tonight in Harmon gymnasium under the auspices of the University of California Glee Club. The show will be given for the benefit of the proposed European tour of the college musical organization. This trip, the first of its kind ever attempted by an American college glee club, will include the principal cities of Germany, France and England, and will, in all probability, continue throughout the summer vacation, the members sailing from New York on June 14.

Prominent among the numbers on tonight's program will be Bray's Southern Pickaninies, H. W. Sherwood, violinist, the famous beauty chorine, the nature of which is still somewhat of a mystery; Maxwell's Italian street singers and Clinton R. Morse, tenor. Beside these features the glee club will render several selections and the old college favorites, Milton Swartz and Colman Schwartz, will be heard in their inimitable monologues.

The show will commence at 8:15 o'clock and the admission charge is 50 cents. All the visiting interscholastic athletes will be there as guests of the glee club, and the varied program of clever soloists, as arranged, will afford a vaudeville bill of headline standard.

R. C. Wheeler is chairman of the arrangements committee for the vaudeville.

SOMEONE THERE; SAYS SHE WASN'T

Mrs. Margaret Klink Declares
Another Is Posing as Herself.

Who is the woman who gave local deputy sheriffs to understand she was the wife of Thomas Klink, proprietor of the Warm Springs hotel? Mrs. Margaret Klink, who resides at 562 Eighth street, this city, says she would like to know. Her curiosity, she admits, is due to the fact she says that she is Klink's wife.

When Deputy Sheriff S. B. Van Devort and Edward Sweeney of Sheriff Barnett's force were at Warm Springs Wednesday looking for Miss Amy Dale, the alleged affiant of Thurston Hall, the actor, a very busy woman, outwitted the sleuths and spirited Miss Dale away. This busy woman, who whizzed about in an auto, was Mrs. Mary Klink, the sheriffs were given to understand, and the wife of Thomas Klink.

Now comes Mrs. Margaret Klink, prominently known for her charitable work in this city, who denies that she was at Warm Springs, and who intimates that she never expects to go there. She is feared, however, that she is interested enough in Klink to want to know what was going on at Warm Springs.

ADVISES PA TO 'BLACK HIS EYE'

Daughter of C. J. Lindgren
Wanted a Fight in Court.

SAN FRANCISCO, April 28.—For a time yesterday afternoon the courtroom of Justice of the Peace Joseph McCormick in Redwood City looked like an imitation prize fight ring, following the hearing of a suit between two society women of the Ladies' Kennel Association of San Francisco, when J. J. Matheson of San Francisco and C. J. Lindgren of Burlingame, the respective husbands of the social litigants, came to blows.

It is said the men started to fight yesterday because Mrs. Matheson assured her husband that she had overheard Lindgren refer to him as a perjurer, after he had given his testimony before Justice McCormick.

Then Matheson made a pass at Lindgren, whereupon the latter's daughter, Miss Vera Lindgren, calmly advised her father to "blacken his eyes, papa."

S.S.S. CURES ALL BLOOD INFECTIONS

Contagious Blood Poison, as the name indicates, is an infectious blood disease, of such intense nature that once the virus gets into the circulation, no portion of the body is free from its destructive force unless it is promptly checked.

It usually begins with a tiny sore or pimple as its outward evidence of its presence. But in a short while its many symptoms begin to make their unwelcome appearance. The mouth and throat ulcerate, itching rashes appear on the body, the hair comes out easily, brown blotches appear on the limbs, etc. So highly contagious is the disease that it is sometimes communicated from one person to another

Some eight years ago I was inoculated with poison by a nurse who infected my babe with blood taint. I was covered with sores and ulcers from head to foot. I was advised to use S. S. S. We got some, and I improved from the start, and all my sores and perfect cure was the result. S. S. S. is the only blood remedy which reaches desperate cases.

By the use of the same toilet articles or handling the clothes of an infected person. It is a dangerous poison and should not be trifled with; the blood should be cleansed as quickly as possible of the destructive virus.

S. S. S. has been curing Contagious Blood Poison for more than forty years. It goes right down into the circulation, and removes every particle of the poison. While curing the disease S. S. S. adds richness and nourishing powers to the blood, and a person who is cured by the use of S. S. S. will find that every portion of the system has been benefited by the treatment. S. S. S. cures so perfectly that there is never any return of the old symptoms; it drives the poison completely out by purifying the blood. S. S. S. is known everywhere as the greatest of all blood purifiers, and for this reason it is a sure cure for Contagious Blood Poison. Write for our Home Treatment Book and any medical advice you may desire, free. S. S. S. is for sale at drug stores.

ARDUOUS WORK OF SOLOON IS TAFT'S TEXT

When You Get Good Congressman Keep Him, Advises President.

Laborious Duties of People's Representatives Is Pointed Out.

NEW YORK, April 28.—The arduous work of a member of Congress was the text of the concluding address made by President Taft on his flying two-day's visit to New York. He talked about the Congressmen for a half hour at an up-town banquet hall, just before he was whisked away to take his early morning train for Washington. The occasion was a dinner to ex-Congressman J. Van Vechten Olcott, who was swept out of office by a Democratic rival in the last election.

"The work of a Congressman," said the President, "is not easy, nor if he does all that his constituents expect him to do in the way of errands running and at the same time all that his office requires him to do in the way of preparation for his duties."

COMMITTEE LABORS.

"Committee work does not shine conspicuously before the public, but it is hard, absorbing study and the good representative of the people are frequently not appreciated at home because the real work in Congress is not always nor generally done on the floor."

"Of course there is a good deal of loafing among Congressmen, as there is among other people, but the keeping up with committee reports, the voting as one ought to vote, the investigations that have to be made, are a burdensome task. And when you get a good Congressman it is your duty to send him back as often as you get the opportunity. The Congressmen who come to Washington for their first session are perforce obliged to mark time, to prepare themselves to be useful later, and they ought to be sent, not for one term, but for ten terms, if they are properly to represent their constituents."

TEN INJURED IN TROLLEY WRECK

Surface Cars Collide With Fatal Result at Buffalo, New York.

BUFFALO, N. Y., April 28.—Ten persons were injured, two of them fatally, in a head-on collision between two trolley cars under the shadow of a viaduct on Swan street here early today. Arthur Moon, 48 years old, a conductor, has a fractured skull, and Mrs. Ray Collins, 50 years old, has a broken back. Claude Hall, a motorist, one of the cars, was placed under arrest pending further investigation. Hall's car became crippled by a defect in the machinery as he was crossing from the northbound to the southbound tracks. His lights being out, his car was not seen by the motorist of the car approaching the dark shadow of the viaduct from the other direction. Of the ten persons on Hall's car, not one escaped injury. Conductor Moon was catapulted through a window, his head striking a pillar of the viaduct. Mrs. Collins was buried beneath the wreckage.

ACCUSED OF SENDING MORPHINE THROUGH MAIL

William Childers, a negro, charged with having sent morphine powder through the mails to George Shinn from Marysville to Oroville, waived examination last Wednesday before United States Commissioner J. B. Webster at Stockton and was taken to the Alameda county jail by deputy United States Marshal T. E. Kierman to await the action of the Federal Grand Jury.

Childers' arrest was ordered by Chief Postoffice Inspector Harry B. Hall under the act of Congress prohibiting the sending of poisons through the mails except from the manufacturer to licensed physicians, druggists or dentists.

HOW HAPPY THE WORD 'CUTICURA' SOUNDS TO ME

For It Cured My Baby of Itching, Torturing Eczema. First Came when 3 or 4 Weeks Old. Two Cakes Soap and One Box Ointment Cured.

"I can't tell in words how happy the word 'Cuticura' sounds to me, for it cured my baby of itching, torturing eczema. It first came when she was between three and four weeks old, appearing on her head. I used everything imaginable and had one doctor's bill after another but nothing cured it. Then the eczema broke out so badly behind her ear that I really thought her life would be lost. I had to keep her in a dark room for two weeks. The doctor did no good, so I stopped him coming. For about two weeks I had Cuticura Soap for her every day, then I got a box of Cuticura Ointment and began to use that. There was a marked improvement. In all I used two cakes of Cuticura Soap and one box of Cuticura Ointment and my baby was cured of the eczema. It was last November; now her hair is growing out nicely and she has not a scar on her. I can not praise Cuticura enough. I can take my child anywhere and people are amazed to see her without a scar. From the time she was four weeks old until she was three years, she was never without the terrible eruption but now she is healthy and happy. I had to keep her in a dark room for two weeks. It was last November; now her hair is growing out nicely and she has not a scar on her. I can not praise Cuticura enough. I can take my child anywhere and people are amazed to see her without a scar. From the time she was four weeks old until she was three years, she was never without the terrible eruption but now she is healthy and happy. I had to keep her in a dark room for two weeks. The doctor did no good, so I stopped him coming. For about two weeks I had Cuticura Soap for her every day, then I got a box of Cuticura Ointment and began to use that. There was a marked improvement. In all I used two cakes of Cuticura Soap and one box of Cuticura Ointment and my baby was cured of the eczema. The doctor did no good, so I stopped him coming. For about two weeks I had Cuticura Soap for her every day, then I got a box of Cuticura Ointment and began to use that. There was a marked improvement. In all I used two cakes of Cuticura Soap and one box of Cuticura Ointment and my baby was cured of the eczema. It was last November; now her hair is growing out nicely and she has not a scar on her. I can not praise Cuticura enough. I can take my child anywhere and people are amazed to see her without a scar. From the time she was four weeks old until she was three years, she was never without the terrible eruption but now she is healthy and happy. I had to keep her in a dark room for two weeks. WOMEN IN THE NEWS

MRS. WYLIE REFUSES TO GIVE SPOUSE TO RIVAL

Husband's Plan of Divorce Is Turned Down by Wife He Deserted.

WASHINGTON, April 28.—With the rumored sailing of Horace Wylie for Europe from New York this morning, the smallest sea of Washington has relinquished the belief that a reconciliation between Wylie and his wife is possible. It is reported that Wylie selected overtures for a reconciliation made by Mrs. Wylie. It has been stated that Wylie came over to try to arrange a divorce with Mrs. Wylie in order that he might marry Mrs. Hichborn, with whom he is generally believed to have eloped in December. However, it is said that Mrs. Wylie refused to become a party to this plan. Another interesting story came from a schoolmate of Mrs. Hichborn is that she is living with her mother, Mrs. Henry M. Hoyt, wife of the late solicitor of the State Department, in a secluded chateau in France and that after Mrs. Hoyt's arrival in Europe, Wylie was given the choice of obtaining a divorce or never seeing Mrs. Hichborn again.

Affinity Ends Suit

SANTA ROSA, April 28.—Sensation-seekers who went to the Superior Court in the expectation of listening to the exposure of the dual life of Frank Hazen of Healdsburg were disappointed, for Mrs. Sarah A. Hazen dismissed her alienation suit against Mrs. Hazen No. 2, who also is known as Myra Deveraux. Mrs. Sarah Hazen also dismissed her suit against her husband's support for two years, the time he has been missing from Massachusetts.

The terms of the settlement are secret, Philip Ware, attorney for the complaining woman, positively refusing to give out any information.

Mrs. Sarah Hazen started Sonoma county by her appearance several months ago with the assertion that Hazen had deserted her in Massachusetts nearly a quarter of a century ago.

PAUL, April 28.—A special train with Miss Carroll Brown of Baltimore, daughter of the late Marcus Daly, the "Copper King" of Anaconda, Mont., on board, passed through St. Paul yesterday, rushing the young woman to New York City where an operation will be performed which it is hoped may result in saving her life. Secrecy is maintained about the nature of her ailment. Two physicians and a corps of nurses are on the train.

Emerson Drops Divorce

BALTIMORE, April 28.—Captain Isaac E. Emerson's bill for absolute divorce was lost by default yesterday in accordance with a decree signed by Judge Stump. From Captain Emerson's failure to put in an appearance, the inference is taken that he will permit his wife to secure a divorce without contest.

Ruth Loraine Leaves

NEW YORK, April 28.—Ruth S. Loraine, 16-year-old daughter of Alice Loraine, who has been making a big reputation for herself in Europe in grand opera, sailed yesterday to join her mother on the other side.

Miss Loraine was recently graduated from the Los Angeles High School. She will spend a year in the co-ed department of the University of California, returning to California to enter Leland Stanford University.

Miss Loraine said she had heard from her mother that she had met with success in her singing at the Hagus, Madrid and other European cities. She sings today in Monte Carlo.

Imprisoned Justice Will Tie Knot Free

ATANTA.—"Tell the boys to bring up the girls while I am idle, and I will tie the knot for them gratis."

This is the notice sent out by C. J. Meadows, Justice of the Peace, who was confined in Coffee county on the charge of running a blind tiger, and who is now spending thirty days in jail in payment for his transgression of the laws he was elected to enforce.

He will have to hurry, however, for Governor Brown has been called on by the Grand Jury to remove him from office. His decision is expected in a few days.

Writing to a newspaper, Judge Meadows says: "We had a nice little wedding here on the 24th inst. Mack Taylor came up to see his brother, and brought with him a young Miss Etta Smith, and while up here I tied the nuptial knot that made them one, in the presence of our home folk and several of Douglas's prominent citizens."

Chicago Solves The Servant Problem

CHICAGO.—Vanishes the servant problem.

Goodbye to the old-fashioned "hired girl." Enter the "contracting houseworker."

The latest queen of the kitchen and autocrat of the household is on the job in large numbers in Oak Park, one of Chicago's fashionable suburbs.

The "contracting houseworkers" do not work by the week. They work by the hour or day, with the number of hours a day distinctly and legally understood, with their own independent homes and home life, and with evenings and Sundays at their own disposal. They are independent as factory workers and better paid.

A canvass of employment agencies in Chicago and the suburbs demonstrated that the young woman who accepts a position as servant in a family at a certain wage a week with all questions as to her independent life and privileges left to the discretion and generosity of her mistress, is rapidly entering into the class of the dodo.

Mrs. Raymond Robins, who conducted investigations for the New York Association for Household Research in all the important cities of Europe and America, said the system of "contracting houseworkers" now coming into vogue in Chicago has been established in Paris for many years.

An effort is being made to teach the new system of household employment at the University of Chicago. A plan for having the women employed in the girls' halls live outside the buildings in which they work is under consideration.

HEIRESS ACCUSES FAKE PHYSICIAN; WEEPS IN COURT

ATLANCIC CITY, N. J.—Evidence of sensational character developed at the hearing of "Dr." F. M. Girard, the physical culture exponent and member of the Outcasts, who was taken into custody here with Katharine Potter, daughter of a wealthy and prominent family of Sandy Lake, Pa., by city detectives, who found them living in a tent under an amusement place, opposite the million-dollar pier.

A brother, S. E. Potter, head of a big Chicago manufacturing firm, who came to rescue the girl, sat beside the pretty witness as she accused the prisoner.

Magistrate Philip Grove held Girard under $1000 bail on one charge, and under $2000 on another, after declaring: "I'm sorry I can't fix your bail higher. You're a menace to society."

Women were barred from the court room. Miss Potter, her head bowed in shame, burst into tears as she declared she had been lured from her home by letters from Girard.

ESCAPED, BUT RECAPTURED.

She showed letters which declared he would protect her and develop her into a physical culture expert. She said she had come to this city in answer to his instructions on March 9, and identified Girard by means of a pink carnation he wore.

According to the girl, Girard cut off her hair, and made her don boy's clothes to protect him, she explained. The shorn hair was exhibited in court.

Miss Potter testified the doctor had taken her to his tent under the plea that out-of-door life was the basic principle of physical culture. She escaped after two weeks, she said, slipping away at Jamesburg, where she was found by the doctor while she was visiting the out-camp colony to get literature.

He brought her back to this city after a visit to Newark, she testified, and they moved their tent under the "Figure 8" opposite the million dollar pier, at Arkansas avenue and the boardwalk. The witness asserted she had made repeated efforts to escape, but finally desisted through fear of the man who held her in his power.

At present he is a member of the low senior class and for a long time was president of the Oakland High School Senate.

Elvidge is a member of the First Congressional Cadet corps, ranking as a non-commissioned officer. He also played on the cadets' basketball team, which have won the O. C. A. L. championship for the last two years.

SAYS AN ANGEL WAITED ON HER

NEW YORK.—The "angel visitor" who brought just rough food to keep her alive, has deserted Annie Goshella, 30 years old, and after sixty-five days she is taking a little real, terrestrial nourishment, thereby ending one of the most remarkable fasts in the history of modern medical practice.

The girl went to the Passaic, N. J., general hospital, February 7. At that time she had taken neither food nor drink except four glasses of milk and half an orange in more than thirty days. She would not touch food at the hospital and protested that an "angel" visited her at 4 o'clock every morning and brought her small morsels of bread and a tiny glass of wine. How she managed to sustain life for more than two months is a source of amazement to physicians, who are making a study of her case.

GERMANY'S ART IS SUBJECT OF LECTURE

"Germany as an Art Center" was the subject of an illustrated address delivered by Professor Goetz, instructor in German in the high schools of this city, before the students in Common Assembly hall, Eleventh and Grove streets, yesterday afternoon. The savant exhibited pictures of the leading cities in Germany and discussed the great composers and statesmen of the old country. It was the first public address delivered by Professor Goetz since he commenced his course at the beginning of the school term.

BROKEN WATER MAIN AGAIN DELUGES BROADWAY

FLOOD CARRIES DAMAGE IN PATH

Pipe Once More Gives Way and Several Million Gallons
Are Lost.

$10,000 Damage Said to Have Been Done to Paper Stock in Basement.

For the second time within the last three weeks the 16-inch water main of the Peoples Water company running along the east side of Broadway, broke at Eleventh street shortly before 6 o'clock this morning, flooding the streets from curb to curb and the basements to a considerable extent in the immediate vicinity. At the point where the large sheet-iron main burst a great hole was made in the pavement. Sand and gravel from the street foundation was forced to the surface.

It is estimated by the engineers of the company that several million gallons of water went to waste. When the last break occurred, just one block south, at Tenth street, a great deal more water was lost though its loss, it was said, would not effect perceptibly the supply reservoirs.

LAID 25 YEARS AGO.

The main is one of a pair laid in Broadway more than 25 years ago and from wear, corrosion and electrolysis it has become exceedingly frail in places, lending possibility of frequent ruptures with their attendant damage and expense. The street at Tenth and Broadway was only this week put in repair at considerable cost to the water company and it is believed that it will be necessary to replace the entire length of the old main with a new one before the trouble is eliminated.

CLAIM $10,000 LOSS.

The heaviest loser from the water that burst in basements in the vicinity of the broken main will probably be the Oakland Paper company at 1012 Broadway, which had its basement heavily stocked with piles of paper. Four feet of water submerged the stock entailing heavy damage to the greater part of it owing to the absorption propensities of the bales and reams.

In the other basements in the block between Tenth and Eleventh street little damage was done. These basements the break had little stored beneath the sidewalk level. They are the Security bank, the George Austin Real Estate company and the Oakland Crip company.

INCREASE PRESSURE.

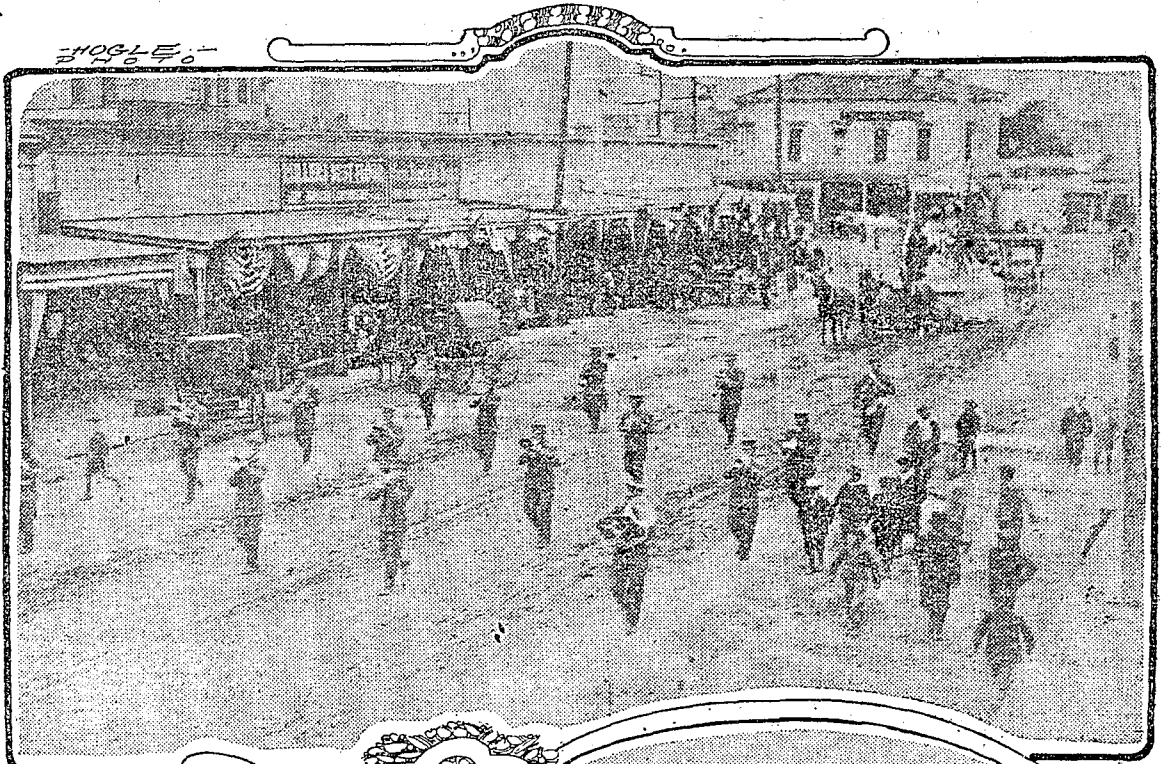

According to G. H. Wilhelm, chief engineer of the Peoples Water company, the bursting of the main was due to the great pressure put on the pipe at midnight last night when the system was tested through the new reservoir and to the fact that the sheet iron, cement-lined pipe had been in the ground thirty-five years.

"We put almost 100 pounds pressure on the mains last night," said Wilhelm today, "which is more than double the usual pressure and more than four times that used in eastern cities."

"We have been anticipating just such a break as occurred this morning and have had on hand a quantity of strong cast-iron mains for some time. We are going to replace the old pipe along Broadway from Telegraph to Eighth at once."

REVELERS IN CONFETTI BATTLE
LODGES TO HOLD BIG PARADE

Scenes at the Livermore Druids' Carnival, Which Will Be Brought to Close Tomorrow Night.

LIVERMORE'S CARNIVAL A SUCCESS

Special Train From Oakland
Saturday to Carry the Visitors to Fete.

LIVERMORE, April 28. — Today, the third day of the Druids' carnival, which might as well be termed the carnival of Livermore, for the reason that every resident of the place is taking an interest in the enterprise, witnessed an increase in the attendance of people, not only from this city and the outlying districts but also from a number of distant towns in the county.

These visitors patronized the concessions with a liberality that rejoiced the hearts of the managers, the revenue from which served to increase the income of the Druid treasury, as the order receives a percentage of the gross receipts of the concessionaries.

The afternoon at 2 o'clock, there was an initial move in the matter of the motorcycle race for liberal prizes, but the termination had not been reached at this writing. These were the races which ought to have taken place yesterday, but which were continued owing to the muddy condition of the roads, as a consequence of the rain which has fallen at intervals since the opening of the carnival.

There was a large number of entries, all of the contestants being among the fleetest riders in this part of the county. The course extends from this city to Santa Rita Junction, thence through Pleasanton and back to Livermore. Around this course four laps will be run, making the race one of fourteen miles.

PRIZES ARE OFFERED.

The prizes offered are of sufficient value to warrant fine sports being made by the contestants. They comprise a silver trophy cup presented by Badgley & Son, a liberal quantity of motorcycle oil, offered by H. B. Varney; a motor tire by Crane Bros., and a speedometer by Henry J. Callaghan.

Tonight, there will be another confetti battle on the street and along the midway pleasure and this will be a most animated spectacle for the reason that the weather promises to be pleasant and the disposition of the people is to make the most of the opportunity for a revel of this kind while the carnival colors hold.

Pastors Call on Sheriff
To Stop Tonight's Bout

Thompson-Kelly Battle May Not Be Fought at Racine;
Trouble in Sight.

RACINE, Wis., April 28.—With everything in readiness for the Thompson-Kelly battle here tonight, trouble loomed up for the promoters today when a delegation from the Ministers' Union waited on Sheriff Robert Wheeler and demanded that he stop the bout.

What the authorities will do cannot be foretold. If the contest is allowed to go on, it is said it will be the last one for Racine.

Thompson arrived in the city last night, while Hugo Kelly is expected here shortly after noon.

SOCIALISTS WILL OPEN CAMPAIGN SUNDAY NIGHT

The Socialists of Oakland will open a campaign for the final election Sunday night in Rice Institute. The speakers will be Fred C. Wheeler of Los Angeles, late candidate for lieutenant governor of the Socialist party; Rev. Robert Whitaker, Rev. R. A. Maynard of Los Angeles, and Thomas Booth.

possession of the structures and streets and the means for this innocent diversion are at hand. The "horribles" will also make their appearance.

FRATERNAL PARADE.

Tomorrow and tomorrow night will witness the closing hours of the fest. There will be a special train run to this city from Oakland by the Western Pacific road, which will reach here about 9:30 a. m. It will discharge passengers in time to witness the great fraternal parade, in which there will be thirty organizations represented. Each of these will be accompanied by a float emblematic of the order. There will be a great deal of competition displayed in this way and, as a consequence, it is expected that many of the floats will be of a very attractive appearance.

In the afternoon at 3 o'clock, there will be a track meet by the members of Company L, the Livermore Union High school and the Livermore locals on First street. In the evening there will be another confetti battle and another parade of the "horribles," which occasioned so much amusement last night. About midnight the great carnival will be brought to a close.

The uniform success that has attended the use of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy has made it a favorite everywhere. It can always be depended upon. For sale by Osgood Bros.' drug stores.

WAR WAGED IN SPITE OF PACT

Rebels Surround City of Mazatlan and Cut Off Water Supply.

The Insurrectos and Federals
Meet in Battle Near City of Hermosillo.

NOGALES, Mex., April 28.—The news has been confirmed here that a large force of insurgents are surrounding the big port of Mazatlan, and that they have completely cut off the water supply of the city for the purpose of either forcing it to surrender or compelling the federal garrison to come out and give battle.

All railroad communication with the beleaguered city is completely cut off through the dynamiting of bridges and the holding up of trains. The Southern Pacific lines of Mexico running south from Nogales through Hermosillo to Mazatlan are cut from the north of the latter port. Communication to the southward is also severed. All wire communication has been cut and no avenue of news is open. The only possible source of outlet for the port is by boat over the Gulf of California to Guaymas, the port of Hermosillo.

No definite word has been received since the first battle between the opposing rebels and federals occurred just outside of Mazatlan a few days ago. At that time upwards of a hundred wounded, all federals, had been brought into Mazatlan.

The city may even now be in the hands of the rebel forces, so far as information reaching the outside world shows. Authentic report has been received here that the rebels have captured the important railroad city of San Blas, on the Southern Pacific Mexico line in the state of Sinaloa. San Blas is about 50 miles below Puerto, the former capital of Sinaloa, reported yesterday as taken by the rebels. The whole region appears to be overrun with insurrectos, and the railroad for hundreds of miles is tied up.

TUCSON, Ariz., April 28.—Fighting between the federals and rebels has been renewed in the vicinity of Hermosillo, the capital of Sonora, and according to mail advices just received here a total of forty on both sides was killed and wounded in a battle at Horcasitas on April 25. Horcasitas is located between Ures, where the heavy fighting occurred about a

HEBREW CONGREGATION
ADOPTS REFORM IDEA

Oakland Jews Declare for Principles of Modern Church After a Long Discussion

The First Hebrew Congregation of this city, which, for many years, has been composed of members who were divided between orthodox and the principles of the modern reform movement in Judaism worship, last night declared itself in favor of the modern idea and is henceforth to be considered as one of the reform Hebrew congregations of the country.

This action on the part of the local society will be appreciated by the other reform organizations throughout the country for the reason that the home congregation is considered one of the most proper religious societies of the kind in the United States.

UNION PRAYER BOOK.

As a consequence of the change ordered last night, there will hereafter be in the services of the First Hebrew Congregation only the Union Prayer book, which has been compiled, under the supervision of the American Central Conference of Rabbis of this country.

This book eliminates a number of prayers which for years have been used in the orthodox synagogues, those retained being in accordance with the thought, feelings and modern ideas of the reverence of rabbis of this country.

Hereafter, also, the services in the synagogue will be conducted with the heads of all the worshippers uncovered. Heretofore, male devotees at the services have been permitted to keep their heads covered, this practice including even the laymen who assisted in the sacred service, some of the officers of the synagogue.

The departure from the old method of worship specified was a radical one, yet it was accomplished in a manner devoid of friction and bitter feeling.

The change, however, was not unexpected for the reason that, for a long time, there has been in the congregation a tendency in the direction of the reform idea, especially on the part of the younger members of the body, as also in other parts of the country.

There has been no abridgement of the tenets of Judaism, but the method is made more in consonance with the prevailing ideas of progressiveness and at the same time reverential members of the Hebrew congregations of the country.

The meeting was presided over by Abraham Jonas, the president, who spoke of the purpose of the meeting. Julius Abrahamson made a scholarly address.

month ago, and Hermosillo. In the fight on April 25 225 federals engaged a smaller number of rebels and the latter withdrew when their ammunition was exhausted.

dress, showing that he had given the matter the greatest attention and study, proving at the same time the devotion he entertained for the progress of the congregation, of which he has always been a leading member and at times its presiding officer.

OTHERS SPEAK.

Other speeches were delivered by Fred Kahn, Judge Samuel A. Levenson, Henry Scherman, Milton Mazor, Max Marcuse and others. Both sides were discussed in a dispassionate manner and at the close of the consideration, President Jonas called for the vote. Notwithstanding the fact that a two-thirds vote is required in such a case, the proposition prevailed. The new change will go into effect at the first of the Jewish new year.

Among those present at the meeting were Rabbi Friedlander, who has been connected with the congregation for nearly twenty years. He has been devoted to his people and his efforts have largely contributed to the successful position which the society now holds among the Hebrew congregations of the country.

PAPER AND LABOR UNDER DISCUSSION

Publishers Take Up Important Subjects on Second Day's Session.

NEW YORK, April 28. — Paper and labor the two chief items of expense to a newspaper—were the topics under discussion at the second day's session of the American Newspaper Publishers' Association meeting here.

John Norris, chairman of the committee on paper, submitted the annual report of the committee summarizing its work, outlining the present situation and predicting results within a short time from the association's efforts, begun in 1907, to procure print paper free from duty.

The report commended the pending reciprocity agreement with Canada as a measure of relief to newspaper publishers and in line with this sentiment the association passed a resolution asking passage by the Senate of the bill to carry out the reciprocity agreement recently passed by the House of Representatives.

The committee on print paper—Messrs. Norris, Don C. Deltz and Hermann Riddle—was continued with authority to pursue its work.

The labor problem was taken up in the afternoon. The labor committee was ready to report a new agreement to replace the expiring one with the Typographical and the Pressmen's unions and labor leaders were to be heard in this connection.

DOGS HOWL WHEN THEIR OWNER DIES

Chloroform Given to a Score of Beasts Ends Their Sounds of Grief.

NEWPORT, R. I., April 28. — Surrounded by a score of dogs of many breeds that she had found homeless and had befriended, Mrs. Ella Burt, 58 years old, died at her home here last night after an illness of two weeks. Seemingly to realize the loss of their benefactress, the dogs whined and howled in a dismal chorus for several hours after her death until they were put out of their misery early today by the use of chloroform, in accordance with the express wishes of Mrs. Burt.

26 DESCENDANTS HELP OLD COUPLE CELEBRATE

NAPA, April 28. — The golden wedding anniversary of Mr. and Mrs. Halva Christensen, one of the oldest pioneer couples in Napa, was celebrated here today. The couple were married in Bergen, Norway, in 1861, and came to the United States in 1864, coming directly west, and settling in Napa during the latter part of that year. The couple later spent many years in San Francisco, and about three years ago returned to make their home here again.

There are eight children, seventeen grandchildren and one great-grandchild living, and most of them were present at the celebration here.

CHINESE FORCE TRAPPED IN MONGOLIA BATTLE

SEATTLE, Wash., April 28. — News of fighting in Mongolia was brought by the steamship Inaba Maru, which arrived from the Orient yesterday.

Mongol rebels, who are said to have been incited and supplied with arms by Russians, attacked and burned twenty-six Chinese villages on the Mongolia-Manchuria frontier, south of Tsaitai harbor.

A Chinese force of 3500 was sent against the Mongols, and the rebels were defeated and their leader captured, but on the homeward march the Chinese troops were ambushed by the rebels.

CONSIDER RELATION OF THE STATE TO CHILD

Matter Is Discussed in Detail by Congress of Mothers and Educators.

QUESTION IS VIEWED FROM MANY ANGLES

Country Schools and Good Roads Are Subjects of Several Papers.

WASHINGTON, April 28. — The National Congress of Mothers and Parent Teachers' Association considered the relation of the state in child welfare today. The discussion of the welfare of the country child was informal. The attention paid by the state to its roads so as to make every country school accessible at all seasons; uniformity of standards of education in public schools throughout the state, and consequent educational advantages for the country child; the use of the city child; heating and cleaning of the school building; co-operation of state departments of agriculture with the schools in promoting a knowledge of scientific horticulture and agriculture, and the use of the buildings outside of school hours for educational and social purposes were phases of the subject considered.

The report of the department of good roads by Mrs. Frank De Garmo of St. Louis was followed by a paper on "The Children of the Mountains," by Miss Martha S. Gielow of this city.

A conference of state delegates discussed duty to the fatherless child, widowed mothers, the erring child, the orphan child and the defective child. Those on the program for participation in the discussion were Mrs. Robert Park, James S. Heberling, Miss Mary S. Garrett and E. K. Johnstone.

PROFESSOR PARKER TO WED. NEW YORK, April 28. — Prof. Herschel C. Parker of Columbia University, who led an expedition up Mount McKinley to disprove Dr. Cook's claims to having ascended that peak, will marry Miss Evelyn Nagle, daughter of Charles F. Nagle, the portrait painter, on May 20. Rear Admiral Peary will be one of the guests at the ceremony.

BANKERS FREED ON HABEAS CORPUS WRITS

Tilden, Benedict and Hatfield Released Half Hour After Arrest.

SUBPOENA ATTACKED ON MANY GROUNDS

Bonds of Three Defendants Are Fixed at $5000 Each.

CHICAGO, April 28.—Judge Pett, in the Superior Court today, granted a writ of habeas corpus for Edward Tilden, George M. Benedict and W. C. Cummings within a half hour after they had been arrested by E. H. Hatfield, assistant sergeant-at-arms of the Illinois State Senate.

Hatfield bore warrants charging contempt of the Illinois Senate for the refusal of the three to obey subpoenas duces tecum calling for their appearance with those books and accounts of the Drovers' Deposit National Bank and the Drovers' Trust and Savings Bank relating to the accounts of Edward Tilden.

ATTACK SUBPOENAS.

Among other things the subpoenas were attacked on the ground that they were not supported by an oath or affirmation; that they did not describe particularly the books showing the receipts and disbursements of money during May, June, July, August and September; that the Helm committee had no power to investigate the conduct of members of the present assembly and that the subpoenas were not signed by the president of the Senate.

Judge Pett set Monday as the date of the hearing and fixed the bonds of the three defendants at $5000 each.

CO-EDS GIVE FOLK FESTIVAL ON CAMPUS

The carnival will mark the inauguration of the new officers of the women's student body. Dr. E. S. Bancroft, who will leave the university soon to join her husband in the east, will be the guest of honor. The committee in charge of the carnival are as follows:

Reception—Penelope Murdock, Florence Madison, Marion Gay, Marguerite Thomas, Helen Tyler, Edna Osborne, Beryl Fountain, Anita Ebner.

Arrangements—Alice Crabbe, Goldie Hulin, Edith McVay.

Refreshments—Emily Churchill, Mary Cowden, Inez Hewitt, Emma Holcombe, May Christall, Edna Crane, Alice Hiestand.

Prominent society women of San Francisco and Oakland will act as patronesses of the day at the festival.

REJOICE OVER PASSAGE OF VACCINATION BILL

J. Stitt Wilson, mayor elect of Berkeley; Hugh C. Farn and William Walker will be the principal speakers.

A. J. Waterhouse is president and Samuel Taylor is secretary of the league.

COSTS A FORTUNE TO RUN A DAY

Big Circus Carries a Regular City of People.

WILL BE HERE MONDAY

Having to its credit one of the most remarkable records in the history of big tents, so far as a season's attendance is concerned, the great Sells-Floto circus comes to Oakland for two days' joyriding on Monday and Tuesday, May 1 and 2.

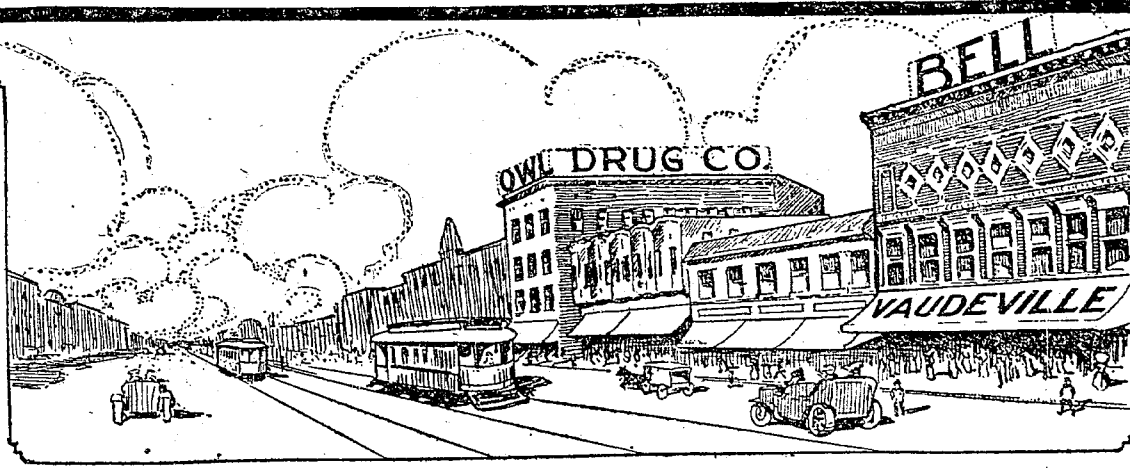

This is the first circus to arrive this season. But again this year comes the remarkable announcement that the price of admission has been cut in half, or, in other words, the people can see the big show in its entirety for the nominal sum of 25 cents.

As far as the history of the world goes, the circus is the most ancient form of amusement. Wonderful structures were built by the ancients to satisfy this particular passion and, strange to say, almost every other form of entertainment that the human mind has been capable of inventing has come and gone during the years which have intervened from the Circus Maximus to that of today. The tented show has never lost its attraction for young and old alike.

The Sells-Floto people make an offer to the public which has never been duplicated in the history of the world. When we realize that the operating cost of this circus runs over the $3000 mark per day, and that the average theatrical attraction rarely costs that much per week, also considering the difference in price charged at the box office of the theater and the 25 cents charged for admission to the great Sells-Floto shows, we must concede that the circus people have taken time by the forelock and are manufacturing history on their own account. The verdict has been left to the great American public. What their answer has been is shown by the marvelous increase in business since the innovation of prices to suit everyone was inaugurated. The Sells-Floto tent this year will be capable of seating 10,000 people. Twenty cars have been added to the three special trains heretofore carried and more than 200 extra people will add novelty to the performance.

For extraordinary features, they offer Foodio Carbo, who slides head downward on a wire from the dome or the tent; Omnia, the balloon horse; the famous Royal horses; clowns, fighting the flames; the Roy Smith troupe, reviving trapeze performers; and a host of regular features. They show at San Pablo and Forty-fifth streets.

Health Wrecked by the Grip

One of our foremost medical writers says: "It is astonishing the number of people who have been crippled in health for years after an attack of the grip." The real danger from the grip is during convalescence, when the characteristic symptoms, the fever, the catarrh, the headache and the depression of spirits pass away. The grip leaves behind it weakened vital powers, thin blood, impaired digestion and over sensitive nerves—a condition that makes the system an easy prey to pneumonia, bronchitis, rheumatism, nervous prostration and even consumption.

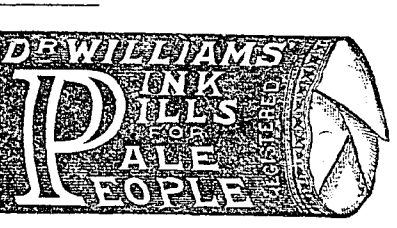

It is a condition that calls emphatically for a tonic for the blood. Dr. Williams' Pink Pills for Pale People are a tonic especially adapted to meet this need, as they purify and enrich the blood. They tone up the nerves and give vigor, strength and health to the debilitated system. The following case proves the value of this tonic treatment:

Mr. N. E. Manning, a mechanic, of No. 294 West San Fernando street, San Jose, Cal., says: "A few years ago when living on a fruit ranch in the mountains of Santa Cruz, I had an attack of the grip from which I recovered. The next fall I again had a severe attack and was a sufferer from its effects for several months. I was tired and exhausted all of the time and could not walk twenty steps without having to stop to rest. I couldn't sleep, was very nervous and had no appetite. I had no energy or life.

"I took medicine from the doctor but was not helped. I also tried two or three different remedies with but little relief. I had been sick for about five months before I read of Dr. Williams' Pink Pills for Pale People and gave them a trial. I began to get better as soon as I started to take the pills and was completely cured after giving them a good trial. I think very highly of the pills and always recommend them for after-effects of the grip."

The above statement should convince anybody who has failed to regain health and strength wrecked by an attack of the grip that Dr. Williams' Pink Pills for Pale People deserve a trial.

If you decide to try them be sure that you get THE PILLS THAT CURED THIS CASE. The package pictured below is your protection. The genuine Dr. Williams' Pink Pills for Pale People are NEVER sold except in packages bearing the well-known trademark.

OAKLAND WOMEN WILL HOLD BAZAAR IN AID OF CHARITY

MISS EVA GRUNINGER, who will take part in the garden fete to be given by the Ladies' Relief Society May 6 in the old Foster place, Webster and Orchard streets. —Bushnell, Photo.

LADIES' RELIEF SOCIETY'S FETE

Event This Year Promises to Be Most Successful Ever Given.

One of the most elaborate fetes of the year will be given by the Ladies' Relief Society, May 6, in the old Foster ground, corner of Webster and Orchard streets, where the leading society and club women of Oakland will preside at the booths and concessions. The feature of the day will be the card tournament, which will be conducted during the afternoon in the palatial Foster residence. A number of the prettiest young women of this city will assist Mrs. Henry Miss Bull, who will have charge of the tourney. They are: Miss Eva McGraw, Mrs. B. S. Hubbard, Miss Elizabeth Latham, the Misses Page, Miss Grace Layman, Miss Eva Gruninger, Miss Alice Marie McHenry, Miss Margaret Warner and Miss Ruth Hall. Accommodations are being made for 600 people in the Foster home, which will be attractively arranged for the occasion. The event will receive memories of the enjoyable festivals held in that mansion when it was occupied by the Fosters some years ago.

About 600 tickets have been printed for the fete and, according to declarations made in the exclusive smart circles of this city, several hundred have already been distributed. A number of social functions, which were announced for May 6, have been postponed, owing to the fete, which is held annually upon the first Saturday in May for the benefit of the Ladies' Relief Society fund. The organization shelters aged women, children whose parents are unable to care for them, and babies, many of whom are waifs.

In order to carry on the splendid work of the society, which is maintained for the greater part by a company of benevolent men and women of this city, a fete or public affair must be given. The list of managers, officers and directors of the society are confident that the May fete will net a larger sum than was realized last year.

HENRY TO FIGHT FOR HIS BABIES

The Second Stage of Contest Is Opened in Courts This Afternoon.

SAN FRANCISCO, April 28.—The second chapter in the litigation involving Mrs. Ivy May Henry and S. Foster Kelley was opened in the Supreme Court at 2 o'clock this afternoon. The second fight for possession of Anita Henry and Albert Henry, Jr., who were kidnaped from the custody of Mrs. Pearl Wyckoff, is to be waged while the matter is pending before Judge Mogan.

Attorneys Drew, Metson and McKenzie, representing Albert Henry, the father, awarded the custody of the babies by the Seattle court, which granted him a divorce from the wife who had left him, will argue that the Supreme Court has no jurisdiction while the matter is pending before Judge Mogan.

They claim that the appeal was taken without proper cause and that the matter has not been threshed out at all in the Superior Court.

The proceedings before Judge Mogan have been set for next Thursday and in the event that the Supreme Court decides against Mrs. Henry and her alleged affinity, the third battle will be opened at that time.

Footpad Grasps Pedestrian by Throat and Shouts, "Give Me Your Purse."

SAN FRANCISCO, April 28.—Two footpads who had been concealed behind a high board fence sprang upon Patrick Cannon on lower Howard street at a late hour last night, struck him on the head and robbed him of $120. Cannon went to the Harbor hospital, where he was treated for an abrasion of the scalp and possible fracture of the skull.

An unknown man engaged James Crowley of 214 Marshall street in conversation at the corner of Twenty-fourth and Dolores streets about 1 o'clock this morning. After exchanging a few words the man suddenly grasped Crowley's throat and cried, "Give me your purse!" Crowley broke away and ran toward Guerrero street and a pedestrian pursued the thug, who took to his heels, but could not overtake him. Later the Mission station was notified.

"Some men," said Uncle Eben, "is so natchedly contrary dat de only day dey feels like gittin' out an' doin' a day's work is Sunday."—Washington Star.

ADOPT RECIPROCITY NOW OR NEVER, SAYS TAFT

President Appeals to People in Speech Delivered Before Nation's Editors.

DECLARES ANNEXATION TALK IS MERE "BOSH"

The Canadian Commissioners
Turned Down Offer of Absolute
Free Trade.

NEW YORK, April 28.—"Reciprocity with Canada must be adopted now or never, and must stand or fall by its own terms."

Amid tremendous applause and the waving of handkerchiefs, thus declared President Taft in an address in the Waldorf-Astoria last night at the fourth annual joint banquet of the Associated Press and the American Newspaper Publishers' Association.

His address was the first of a series in which he plans to evoke public sentiment in support of his policies and he appealed to the company of editors and newspaper owners gathered from the length and breadth of the land to impress on the public mind that reciprocity should stand alone and "ought not to be affected in any regard by other amendments to the tariff law."

DEPLORES ANNEXATION TALK.
 All talk of annexation he characterized as "bosh" and said that the United States had all it could attend to with the territory it was governing. He praised the House of Representatives for its passage of the agreement; declared that it would not injure the farmer nor any special class; answered in detail the objections raised to reciprocity and begged for at least "a kind of test" to dispel the ghosts "exhibited to frighten the agricultural classes."

FOOD PRODUCTS AFFECTED.
 Referring to the reciprocity agreement, Taft said:
 "I am glad to have the opportunity of speaking to a body which fully represents the most important agencies in the formation of public opinion in this country on a question which has now reached a critical point in its settlement. The agreement is a commercial one and affects the duties on imports from each country into the other and, therefore, it is difficult to say that a detailed discussion of tariff schedules is not relevant and important in considering its wisdom. The treaty provides for free trade in all agricultural products, and in rough lumber down to the point of planing. It reduces the duties on secondary food products by a very substantial percentage and it makes such reductions on a number of manufactured articles that those engaged in making them have assured us that the reductions will substantially increase the already large Canadian demand for them."

FREE TRADE REJECTED.
 "We tendered to the Canadian commissioners absolute free trade in all products of either country, manufactured or natural, but the Canadian commissioners did not feel justified in going so far. It is only reasonable to infer, therefore, that with respect to those articles upon which they refuse free trade to us they felt that the profitable price at which they could be sold by our manufacturers in Canada was less than the price at which their manufacturers could afford to sell the same either to their own people or to us."
 "Hence it follows that their refusal to agree to free trade in these articles as we proposed is the strongest kind of evidence that if we should take off the existing duty from such articles coming into the United States it would not affect in the slightest degree the price at which those articles could be furnished to the public here."

CANADIAN COUNSEL SPEAKS.
 William Barton Northrup, king's counsel and a member of the dominion parliament, analyzed Canadian sentiment with reference to reciprocity; Nicholas Butler, president of Columbia University, and J. F. Mackay, president of the Canadian Press, limited, also spoke.
 Oswald Garrison Villard, proprietor of the New York Evening Post, in introducing the President, praised Taft for his abstention from the "shorter and uglier" word in his characterization of those who differed with him and lauded his charity, judgment and advocacy of international peace.

DOWIE'S BACKERS GET PART OF MONEY BACK

WAUKEGAN, Ill., April 28.—Five thousand or more people all over the world who gave John Alexander Dowie their all that he might found his city of Zion, north of Waukegan, have now received what is left of it, 12 and 8-10 cents on the dollar of their money back. Checks were mailed to contributors yesterday to every corner of the world and to every state in the union. One hundred and thirteen went to Canada, 159 to England, Scotland and Ireland, 244 to Switzerland, fifty-eight to Germany, forty-four to Australia and New Zealand, fifteen to South Africa, nine to Holland, seven to Denmark, five to France, four to Austria, two to Mexico, two to Finland, two to Panama, one to Hawaii and one to Palestine. This makes a total of 676 checks to foreign lands.

INFERNAL MACHINE IS FOUND IN ST. LOUIS

ST. LOUIS, April 28.—A valise containing fifty-six pounds of dynamite in two cans with fuses and caps attached, which menaced hundreds, was found in the waiting room at the great St. Louis union station Wednesday night, and stored in the lost article department for twenty-four hours before the contents of the grip was discovered.

That the person who placed the grip in the waiting room had intended a foul purpose was apparent when detectives on examination discovered that two slits were cut in the side of the grips through which two fuses, each twenty feet long, protruded.

ending games of the season. Vernon being unable to get enough runs to tie the score in its half of the ninth.

Raleigh started the game for Vernon and heaved six innings. He was hit until the middle of the eighth and retired after a triple, two singles and a sacrifice had been made off him. Hitt finished the game.

Chiger was put in to leave for the Angels, and quit in the seventh. He was hit by a pass and a single had come in succession.

It was a slugging game from start to finish and was marked by many beautiful hitting stunts, and was notable from the fact that Hap Hogan had fourteen hits in the game.

Three singles, a pass and a triple made Vernon's four runs in the seventh, and a single, sacrifice and an out got the first one. Two doubles, a triple and an error got three for the Angels in the first; two singles an out and a wild pitch the next; and a triple, two singles and a sacrifice the final two. Hogan of Vernon protested the game on the ground that Los Angeles did not play the game. It was announced that Kane would bat for Ross. The score:

CANADIAN PACIFIC

AT HIGHEST POINT Market Is Firm, But There Are Few Changes of Any Importance.

NEW YORK, April 28.—Canadian Pacific advanced 1 1/2 to 2 1/2, the highest point in its history, when the market opened today.

Reading was affected favorably by its March report, which, while not brilliant, served as an offset to the statement recently issued.

United States Steel was in demand, resuming its leadership and touching its high quotation of 43 1/2.

The most interesting feature was the sustained inquiry for bonds, which were traded in extensive quantities.

Consolidated Gas and American Gas preferred. Fractional additions were made to the opening advances in the principal stocks.

Canadian Pacific, which reached a point on profit taking. A few of the specialties moved.

Advances in the principal stocks to 2 1/2, a gain of 3 points.

The day's advances were reduced a good fraction by the afternoon when the professionals began to take profits.

NEW YORK, April 28.—Gibson says: There is nothing new about the immediate movements.

There may be some irregularity and moderate reactions now and then, but I adhere to the view that there is no danger of a serious recession and that the next important movement will be to higher level.

Wheat and corn are low in price considering the yield of other commodities and should sell at higher prices.

There is a good deal of speculation in the crop months in cotton a good sale at this level.

PROPOSED PARK TO COST OAKLAND $40,000

The Public Service Committee Recommends Purchase to City Council.

PROPERTY OWNERS TO PAY 20 PER CENT

Playground to Be Eight-acre Tract in Oakland Avenue to Piedmont Line.

An ordinance providing for the acquisition of eight acres of land in Oakland avenue, extending to the Piedmont line, which will be used for park purposes, was recommended to the city council last night by the public service committee, conditional upon the raising of 20 per cent of the purchase price by the property owners of the neighborhood.

The purchase has been under consideration for some time, as the residents urged the matter before the council several months ago. It was feared that the eight acres would be cut up and a number of shacks be permitted to disfigure the place.

$40,000 IS ASKED.

The price set by the owners was $40,000, and it was at first considered advisable to appropriate this amount. President Ben H. Pendleton, after a conference with the property owners, proposed that the council should not be called upon to raise the whole amount, as the purchase will be of especial benefit to this particular district. He suggested that the property owners raise 20 per cent of the total. A tentative agreement to this plan has been reached. On the condition that the property owners raise $8,000 to assist in making the first payment, Councilman Harold Overhart, chairman of the public service committee, last night entered a resolution to recommend the measure, referring the details to the finance committee. It will receive consideration from the entire council next Monday night.

High Art Clothing

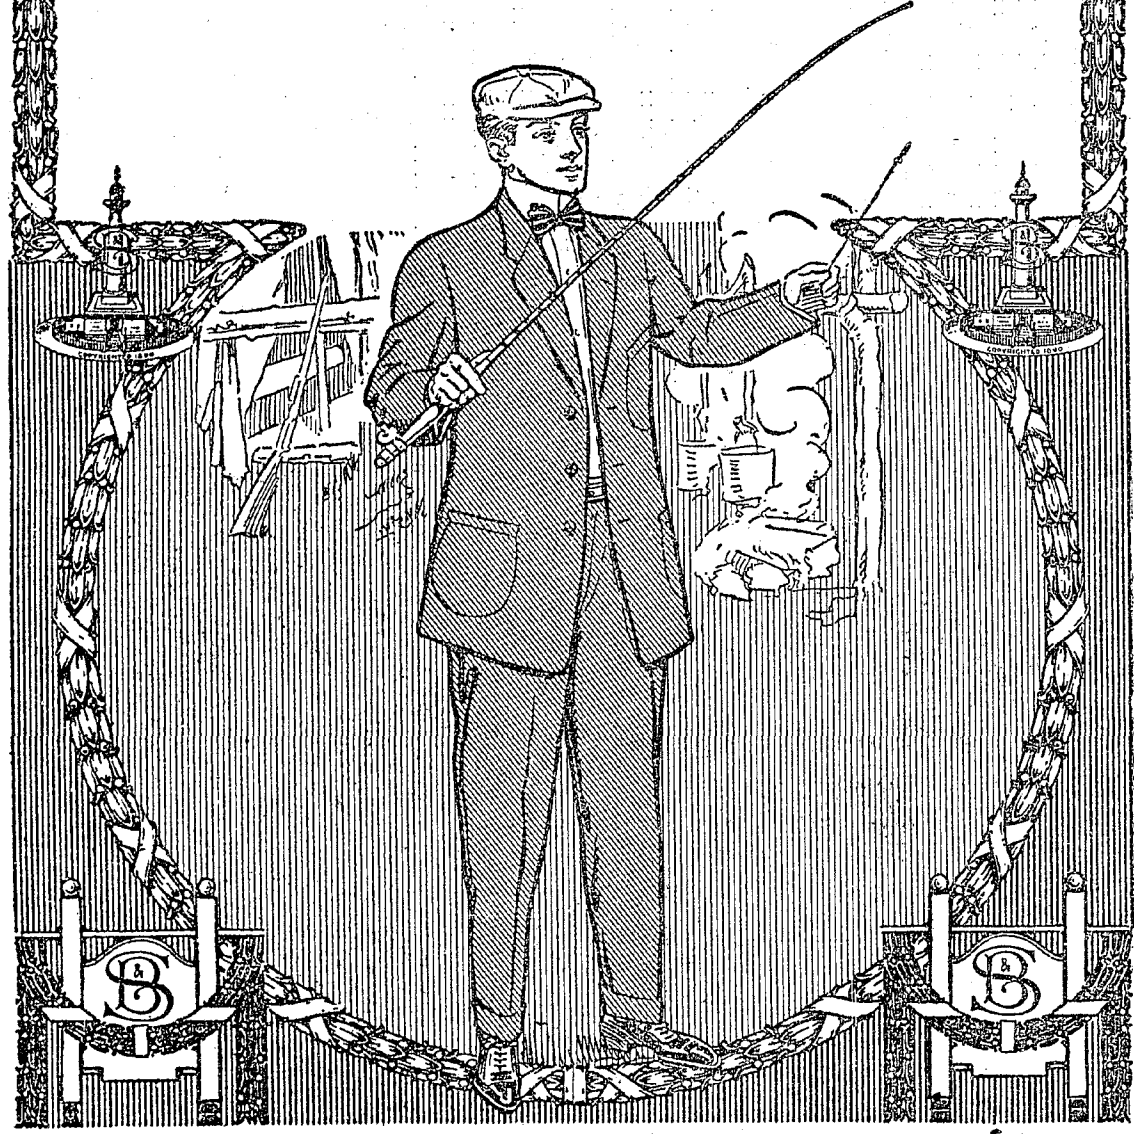

THE best tailor can't better "HIGH-ART" Clothes, because they're tailored precisely his way. But, while they meet him in quality, they beat him in price. An amazingly drilled craftsman-corps, that "works as one man," produces as fine garments as the custom tailor and reduces the cost to one-third of his fee.

The fabrics are all-wool—the garments are silk-stitched—the styles are of the moment—the tailoring is beyond it in the care that is taken to uphold the reputation of almost half a century.

Apply for "HIGH-ART" Clothes at your dealer's and make sure that you are supplied with the genuine by looking for the label in the breast-pocket of the coat.

CLAIMANT OF BIG ESTATE VANISHES

Supposed Son and Only Heir of Millionaire Thos. H. Swope Disappears.

KANSAS CITY, April 28. — Elmer C. Swope, claimant to the $5,000,000 estate of Thomas H. Swope, alleging he is the son and only heir of the late Kansas City philanthropist, has disappeared from his home in Martinsburg, Md., according to the statement of two lawyers who went to Martinsburg to take his deposition.

The lawyers reached Martinsburg last Saturday and learned from the sheriff that he had served a subpoena on Swope a week ago. The subpoena had been sent from here. The lawyers learned that Swope had packed up his belongings and left town a few days after the subpoena was served.

It was for the murder of Thomas H. Swope that Dr. B. Clark Hyde was convicted and sentenced to life imprisonment a year ago. The case was reversed and remanded by the State Supreme Court recently and Dr. Hyde was released on bond this week.

BAR GIRLS FROM POLISHING SHOES

Job as Bootblacks in Kansas City Declared Morally Unfit for Women.

KANSAS CITY, April 28. — Contending that shoe-shining is a work morally unfit for women, the city officials yesterday refused to grant a license to a shoe shining parlor which advertises on a sign that "Pretty girls will shine your shoes." In the meantime, a city ordinance is being prepared to prohibit women shining shoes.

The fact that girls would enter into competition with Greek and other shoe shiners was brought to the attention of the officials by juvenile officers, but it was later learned that none of the fair bootblacks were of an age where the juvenile officers could interfere.

CAPTAIN BLAMED FOR LOSS OF LIFE

Captain A. A. Sears Held to Answer for Sinking of the Ill-fated Iroquois.

VICTORIA, B. C., April 27. — Captain Albert A. Sears, master of the steamer Iroquois, wrecked April 10, off Sydney, with a loss of twenty-one lives, was committed at the preliminary hearing today to stand trial at the Assizes next month on a charge of manslaughter. He was released under bond of $30,000.

Captain Sears repeated the story as told by him at the inquest and declared that looking back at the events of the fatal day, he could think of nothing left undone which could have been done. Several shipmasters gave evidence stating the vessel was overloaded and that they considered the accused acted wrongly in leaving port. Surviving passengers deposed that Captain Sears made no attempt to rescue them.

REDDING, April 28. — The death of nine-year-old Charles Bosworth, who was killed by a shot fired while he was bending over a trough feeding hogs on his father's ranch in Clayton valley, is being investigated by District Attorney Chenoweth and Coroner Larkin. Last Sunday the boy was killed, while his 14-year-old brother was hunting crows. The body was buried without an investigation and will be exhumed by the authorities. The elder boy asserts no shot was fired, but D. C. Daulton, who brought word of the affair to Redding today, says conflicting tales were told by him in explanation of the affair.

MUNICIPAL DOG ON GUARD IN GRASS VALLEY

GRASS VALLEY, April 28. — Grass Valley has a municipal dog of such value that the city council has duly appropriated $2 to be expended in purchasing a license tag for its use and adornment. The duties of the dog are to guard the principal fire station against petty thieves.

Day and night it remains at the station house, and none but duly accredited firemen are allowed to enter or to touch the property of the city kept there. There was some talk of buying a dog tag for the animal, but the more conservative members of the council frowned upon such extravagance.

35,000 WORKERS FACE LOCKOUT

Warring Unions Must Settle Disputes by Tuesday, Is Ultimatum.

CHICAGO, April 28. — Architects and building contractors served an ultimatum on the warring labor unions that unless they settle their jurisdictional disputes by next Tuesday, there will be a general shut down of building operations in Chicago.

Already several thousand workmen are idle because of the jurisdictional disputes. It is estimated the threatened lockout will throw at least 35,000 men out of employment. Among the unions at war with each other over work are the plumbers against the steam-fitters; the carpenters against the sheet metal workers; and building laborers; the bricklayers and building laborers against the cement workers; the elevator constructors against the machinists and electrical workers.

RUM EXPLODES ON BOAT. POINTE-A-PITRE, Guadeloupe, April 28. — While the French steamer Maroni was loading rum and sugar at the docks here fire broke out in the cargo and before it could be put out caused an explosion among the barrels of rum, which killed one fireman.
